

Mid-week Stewardship Thought

God is the Source of All Love and Grace

The following is part of the Apostle Paul's address to the Areopagus:

"The God Who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of Heaven and Earth and does not live in temples built by hands. And He is not served by human hands, as if He needed anything, because He Himself gives all men life and breath and everything else. From one man He made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and He determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live. God did this so that men would seek Him and perhaps reach out for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us. 'For in Him we live and move and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'We are His offspring'" (Acts 17:24-28).

With these words, the Apostle Paul sought to help the intellectuals of Athens understand the nature of the one true God. Over two thousand years later, many are still confused about who God is and what the nature of our relationship with Him is. That is why these words of Paul are so relevant today.

Prayer: Father, thank You for Your love for me and all people. Amen.
