

Mid-Week Stewardship Thought

Expressing Your Thanks to God

How are you saying THANKS to God for all that He has entrusted to you? When we think of Christian stewardship, we probably think of what we place in the offering plate. I hope that you are showing your gratitude through generous giving, but what are you doing with your talents that reflect your thankfulness for the talents God has entrusted to you?

As stewards, we realize that our talents and abilities are gifts from God that are to be used in His service. When we use our gifts for God's benefit, we acknowledge that He is the provider, and we express our thanks for what He gives to us. We express our gratitude as we use our talents to help and support our neighbors as well as those in need. We can also show our appreciation by serving in our churches. Some of the tasks that we can do around the church are fairly obvious, such as being kind and courteous to fellow worshippers, giving words of encouragement, volunteering to sing in the choir, ushering, teaching Sunday school, serving on committees or boards, washing the windows, etc. There are many ways of expressing thanks for the blessings that God has given to us, so get busy.

Prayer: Dear Heavenly Father, You are the provider of all good things. I thank You for blessings with many talents and abilities. Help me to use them in ways that give You glory. In Jesus name I pray. Amen.

Blessings on your journey as a steward!
