

Mid-week Stewardship Thought

Sharing the Gospel

God's plan for His people has always been that we take responsibility for sharing Jesus' love. Peter wrote, "Always [be] prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you" (1 Peter 3:15). Through the power of the Holy Spirit, God will give us the words and the courage to use them. Along with most people, we are eager to talk about the weather, sports, economy, or politics, but, as Christians, we have been given the treasure of the Gospel message—something vastly more important to talk about. Our attitude should be like that of Peter and John, who, when commanded to stop speaking of Christ, said, "We cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). We should want people to know there is a God Who cares for us and is almighty and powerful, yet loving and compassionate. This is the Good News that we as stewards of the Gospel want to share. May God give us courage to use the opportunities He gives us.

Prayer: Father, help me to be bold and clear in my witness to others. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Blessings on your stewardship journey!
