

Mid-Week Stewardship Thought

He Is Risen!

The women went to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body. Confused and distressed at finding an empty tomb, they were further bewildered to hear the words of "a young man...dressed in a white robe... [Jesus] has risen; He is not here...Go, tell His disciples and Peter..." (Mark 16:5-7). Easter is the celebration of the Empty Tomb. Every Sunday we are reminded, "Go, tell!" Like the women, we may be "trembling and astonished" (Mark 16:8), but, we, too, are emboldened by God's Spirit to carry out His command. Go tell. He is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Prayer: Lord, there is no way I can repay You for Your kindness to me, especially the gift of salvation through Your Son. I pray that you will change and transform me into person who seeks to glorify You in all I say and do. Grant me a loving and giving heart. Through Christ, the suffering Servant, I pray. Amen.

Blessings on your stewardship journey!
