Holy Communion at St. John Lutheran Church

Confessing the Word of the Lord in love for all who worship here, and acknowledging the biblical truth that unity with Christ at His altar in Holy Communion embodies Christ's gift of unity in faith and practice, we welcome to the Lord's Supper all who are communicant members in good standing of an LCMS congregation. Communicants are asked to register their participation in the "Record of Fellowship," noting their home LCMS congregation if other than St. John, Bingen. If you have any questions about our communion practice, or the Lutheran faith in general, please speak with our pastor after the service.

+FAMILY CORNER+

Today in the Sunday School Opening we will hear about the Lord's appearance to His disciples.

Today in Sunday School, the children are studying Mark 2:13-17 "Jesus Calls Matthew." Parents could ask, "How did Jesus call Matthew to be one of His followers? How and why does Jesus call us to follow Him?" We sinners rejoice, for we, too, have been called in our Baptism from our own pigsty of sin to dine with Jesus around His table and to be a friend of sinners.

Today in Bible Class the adults will continue their study of Genesis.

All children and adults are encouraged to join us in the Parish Hall for Sunday School and Bible Class at 9:15 a.m.

+ STEWARDSHIP CORNER +

1 Peter 1:3-4 “He has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you.” We have an inheritance waiting for us – a treasure gathered where moth and rust do not destroy. That should change our perspective on the treasures of this earth. They are fleeting, they come and go. But we can use the treasures of this earth for the work of the Kingdom that will not fade away.
