St. John Weekly News + November 18, 2018

Thanksgiving for Recovery of Health: Dearest Lord Jesus, Great Physician, thank You for reaching out in mercy to heal me. I give You thanks and praise for the surgical doctor and nurses, Pastor Brock, our Christian Bingen family and community, and my dear husband, Verlin, who gave so much of themselves to help me in my healing. While I rejoice in my newfound health, I pray that You would graciously help those who still await the touch of Your healing hand. Look on them in mercy, Lord. Amen Marilyn Bulmahn

Thank-you! - A sincere and heartfelt thank you to Pastor Brock, the dear members of the Ladies Guild and the Bingen congregation for your thoughts and prayers at the time of Jean's passing. She was truly blessed to have such loving friends. God's blessings to you all. The family of Jean Lepper

+STEWARDSHIP CORNER +

Bulletin Bloopers ☺ The rosebud on the altar this morning is to announce the birth of David Alan Belzer, the son of Reverend and Mrs. Julius Belzer.

Heb. 10:14 – “For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.” Our Lord Jesus has provided the one offering for sin. What we offer to the Lord is not a sacrifice for sin; we cannot buy our way into heaven with our money, works, or effort. Rather, what we give to the Lord's work in the Church is a thank offering, a sign of our dependency on God and all He has given us.

Holy Communion at St. John Lutheran Church+Bingen

Confessing the Word of the Lord in love for all who worship here, and acknowledging the biblical truth that unity with Christ at His altar in Holy Communion embodies Christ's gift of unity in faith and practice, we welcome to the Lord's Supper all who are communicant members in good standing of an LCMS congregation. Communicants are asked to register their participation in the "Record of Fellowship," noting their home LCMS congregation if other than St. John, Bingen. If you have any questions about our communion practice, or the Lutheran faith in general, please speak with our Pastor after the service.
