Communicants are to be in full confessional fellowship with The Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod. Visitors are kindly asked to read the communion statement below.

HOLY COMMUNION AT ST. JOHN LUTHERAN CHURCH

Confessing the Word of the Lord in love for all who worship here, and acknowledging the biblical truth that unity with Christ at His altar in Holy Communion embodies Christ's gift of unity in faith and practice, we welcome to the Lord's Supper all who are communicant members in good standing of an LCMS congregation. Communicants are asked to register their participation in the "Record of Fellowship," noting their home LCMS congregation if other than St. John, Bingen. If you have any questions about our communion practice, or the Lutheran faith in general, please speak with our pastor after the service.

Notes Received-

We appreciate all the thoughts and prayers from Pastor Brock, Pastor Maronde along with friends during the passing of our father, Gerald Fuhrmann. Also, a big thank you to the bereavement committee for visits and preparation of a wonderful meal following the funeral. Everyone's love and support were extremely appreciated. God's blessings to all! The family of Gerald Fuhrmann

Thank you so much to Pastor Brock and all the members of St. John for your prayers, phone calls, and words of encouragement during my recent eye surgeries. I am still under a specialist's care to monitor my progress and prevent any vision loss; and I am truly blessed to have all of your support.

Faithfully yours, Lora Hormann

Dear Fellow Saints,

Who is this one for whom the Lord God has prepared a body (Hebrews 10:5), but “the radiance of His glory and the exact imprint of His substance, who sustains all things by His utterance of power, having had purification for sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in the highest...” (Hebrews 1:3)

We think of you often and pray for the Bingen congregation, especially as we hear of the members our Lord God has blessed with a Christian death which is no death and give thanks for their faithfulness and remember those who mourn. We look with deep fondness on our years with you and thank the Lord Jesus for the privilege of serving the flock at St. John, now so many years ago. The Lord Jesus cover you in His righteousness and fill you with His love.

We have been blessed by Christ this year with another grandchild, our fifth—all Beth's, and with a daughter-in-law—Marie, Jonathan's wife. Kate continues to teach in Wyoming. And while we have experienced landslides, hurricanes and a heavy snowfall this year, we and our church and members have escaped unscathed.

Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year to you and yours from the Olsons.

In Christian love, Pastor Olson, Deb and family

Dear Sisters & Brothers in Christ, May the peace & joy of the Christmas tidings be yours throughout the coming year. Best wishes for Christmas and the New Year! Thank-you for your generous support for Westfield House Students!

Bulletin Bloopers: ☹️ The audience is asked to remain seated until the end of the recession.

Luke 2:40 “And the child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom. And the favor of God was upon him.” At Christmas God became man. And as a man, Jesus grew up and increased in strength and wisdom. We are called to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, to grow in His image. The faith for this growth comes from receiving the grace of Jesus in His Word and Sacraments. How is the Lord calling you to grow this year?
