If you’re visiting with us today, we’re overjoyed that you’re here. Please make your visit known to us by introducing yourself to the pastor and elders. After the service, please sign the guest book that is located in the narthex. We also have a gift for all first time visitors. The Lord be with us all in Divine Service today!

TAKE EVERY ANXIETY AND GIVE THEM TO GOD.

AS WE GATHER... Sometimes one simple word can have two meanings that are complete opposites. The word anxious is one of them. In English, it comes from the old Latin verb angere,” which means to “take hold of” or “to give pain.” When Jesus says, “Do not be anxious,” He is inviting us to let go of that which causes us pain and to trust in God’s complete and loving care. And yet the flip side of “angere” describes a positive sense of eagerness. In the Advent hymn “Come, Thou Precious Ransom, Come” (LSB 350), we pray to our Savior: “Come, Thy beauty let us see; anxiously we wait for Thee” (st. 1). May our faithful worship reflect that hopeful kind of anxiety as we celebrate the presence of the Lord among us.

NOTE FOR THOSE DESIRING TO COMMUNE

Our practice of close communion is the Biblical & Historic practice of the Christian church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word & for His people since it seeks to prevent spiritual damage to those who do not recognize the true body & blood of Christ in, with, & under the bread & wine in this Holy Supper (1 Cor. 11:29).

Furthermore, it does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) & the Bible's witness that the Lord's Supper is the highest expression of fellowship & doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42). For this reason, guests who are not a member of a sister LCMS church are asked to please speak with our pastor or an elder before communing.

If you're not communing this morning, but still desire to come forward for a blessing; please indicate by crossing your arms over your chest so the pastor may give you a blessing.

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS & PARENTS OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

If you have a child who is in heading off to or returning to college for the 2025-2026 school year, please let us know in the church office so we don't think they are just skipping church.

We also hope to be able to connect them with a local Lutheran pastor / congregation so they can receive God's gifts while away from their home church. We also would like to know their email & snail mail addresses, as we desire to send them a care package and a letter of support and encouragement. Pastor Yaw is also hoping to make a college visit with as many of our WI students as possible at some point during the school year.

USE SCRIP CARDS FOR ALL YOUR BACK TO SCHOOL NEEDS! REMEMBER TO PLACE YOUR SCRIP ORDERS

Whether you use the gift cards for your own shopping or give the cards as gifts, you can help out our youth in the process. A percentage of each card purchased comes back to the church. The best part of all—it cost those participating absolutely nothing!! See Jean Kohlmeyer to see what cards she currently has on hand or if you or if you have any questions. Order forms are available upon request.
