

Dear Friends in Christ,

Some wounds never heal. In our Confirmation class, we watched "The Life of Jesus" film based upon the Gospel of John. The scene with Thomas especially struck something within me. I am not one for graphic violence—but this rendition took away almost all the suffering that Jesus went through. The thrusting of the spear was done by while looking at the bystanders. We need to remember time and again the pain and suffering that Jesus endured—even when it is difficult to watch.

When it came time for the scene with Thomas, the movie had Jesus showing his wounds—but they looked as if they were basically healed. Somewhere in the recesses of my brain I asked, "How was Thomas supposed to put his finger in the wounds in his hands—or put his hands in Jesus side where he was pierced?" The voice in the movie then glossed over the detail by asking Thomas to put his hand on the scar....so not Biblical. We cannot sanitize Jesus' death and suffering.

Some wounds never heal. When I read the story with Thomas, I am struck with the vivid description of the wounds. Even with his resurrected body, they were still present. I consider the pain and suffering that we bring upon both ourselves and others—through our sin—through our actions and our inaction. Those wounds are still there—causing pain and suffering.

Some wounds never heal. As most know, I suffered second degree burns about five years ago. Some days, it is still painful to walk. Every now and then, I notice a bubble on my leg. Once it pops, it feels like the pain from the original burn—and takes weeks to heal thoroughly. Just the mere touch of a finger causes pain.

While we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus—and the promises given. The promises of joy and peace—the promise of eternal life. We should never forget how we got to this side of the cross. We should never forget the journey that Jesus made on our behalf.

Peace,

Pastor Mike

WELCOME TO YOUR CHURCH COUNCIL 2023

Featuring | Craig Tuecke | Treasurer

I grew up around...

and have lived in Guttenberg most of my life. I have been a member of St. John's Lutheran Church for my entire life. One of the advantages of growing up in Guttenberg was I lived less than a block from school and church, and a very short distance away from other important places in the life of a young boy. I never wanted to live anywhere else, even as I grew older that never changed.

My most meaningful accomplishment in high school...

actually took place outside the walls of Guttenberg High School. I attended Shattuck Military Academy located in Faribault, MN for two summer sessions, earning the rank of First Lieutenant during my second year. My ultimate goal at the time was to earn an appointment to West Point. Unfortunately, this goal was never realized but my experiences and the education I received at Shattuck have remained with me to this day.

After college I...

After graduating from Luther College in 1974 with a BA degree in political science and business administration, I began my career working for the State of Iowa as a data coordinator for several regional programs within the Department of Public Safety.

In 1979, I went to work for Farmers Mutual of Garnavillo, a mutual insurance association of which my Great Grandfather Julius Tuecke was one of sixteen men who organized the company in 1896. My Grandfather Edward Tuecke served as President of the Board of Directors for over fifty years. I retired from the company after thirty-seven years. It was during this period of my life that I met my wife Kari, to whom I have been married for almost thirty-four years.

One of the biggest life lessons I learned from...

my parents. I recall my mother, who was a former school teacher, sharing with me that you should never stop learning. When you stop learning you stop growing.

To me, grace means...

getting something you don't deserve. We don't deserve the gift of salvation, we don't deserve the help of the Holy Spirit, and we don't deserve the joys and pleasures of this life. And yet our Heavenly Father's love for us is so great that we get to experience all of these forms of grace and more.

I'm a Lutheran because...

my parents were Lutheran and they fulfilled their promises made at the time of my baptism to provide for my religious instruction in the Lutheran faith. I remain Lutheran because I truly believe that I can do nothing on my own to earn my salvation, and that through Jesus's suffering and death on the cross my sins are forgiven. For me, this is the cornerstone of being Lutheran.

OUTREACH COMMITTEE

The Spirit leads us to rest in the Easter message of compassion, love, and surprising resurrection. There is nothing we need or can do but keep our focus on obedience to God, the love of Jesus, and the leading of the Holy Spirit.

We are all called to reach out from the true gifts God has created and given to each and everyone of us. He nudges us quietly, peacefully, and respectfully in all we do. He has filled our personal Easter baskets to the brim to help each other when we listen and use those gifts.

Jesus told His disciples that He had to leave so another could come. Yes, the Holy Spirit resides in the hearts of all who believe. He readily covers us with His protection and leads us day by day and night by night.

Let Him who knows you so intimately be in your thoughts and actions for whomever and whatever God puts before you. Our unjust earthly home has many trials and tribulations - rest in His Glory as you pray and reach out - His work never goes undone.

Happy Easter!
