Dear Friends,

This coming month is my Birthday... Yes, I am old...well, old enough to make some really difficult decisions. The first is more of a realization—that I have fewer years ahead of me than ever before. Along with this came the thought that I need to start unloading some of my books. Books have been the better part of my life. I have carted books around since my college days—picking up books here and there—now and then with the full intention of reading.

So, it is with great sadness that I begin to depart with these books—I am selling them on AbeBooks.com. But also a sense of sadness also comes with this—a potent reminder that I am limited—that my time here is just that—limited. All those projects and dreams of my youth are becoming a distant dream—along with the ideas of romance, retirement, and sleep. Every time I send a book to a new owner, I am reminded that hopefully some of my dreams will go along with.

We all hit those crossroads in our life—the points at which we are expected to make some choices and decisions going forward. While we may not realize it, we encounter these moments on a daily basis—point where we make decisions that will ultimately affect the rest of our lives.

While we make these decisions, we often feel like we are flying solo—taking on more responsibility. Some days we make the wrong choices. Other days are better. While God gives us these choices, God is also one who works with and through the choices we make. If want to experience just how much God can accomplish, look at the many ways God works through ordinary people.

May God's gentleness work with you each day—so that with God's strength and guidance, we will be able see visions and dream dreams (Joel 2, Acts 2). With God's assistance, may we continue to do ministry. Amen.

God bless,

Pastor Mike

COUNCIL PRESIDENT

As I write this message, I am very thankful for the community of St. John's. I also feel blessed to be your president and the last 2 plus years have been a wonderful experience. After our semi-annual meeting, I want to update you on a few matters that are important to our church.

Many thanks to Craig Tuecke and Diane Thiese who will serve a second term in their current positions on the council. Lynda Schaefers will also be taking over the Fellowship committee's duties. Lynda will be succeeding Lorna Moser. We still have three openings to fill. The openings are for the Public Relations, Property and Children and Youth committees. Chuck Hemann, Frank Davis, and Forest Brown are the current members serving in these positions.

Being on the council involves a general meeting each month, which is on the second Thursday of each month. In addition, each committee usually meets once a month to work on the areas for which they are responsible. I would ask that you prayerfully consider serving and if you have any questions, please contact me or the other council members.

On an incredibly positive note, the basement remodeling is completed. A proposed maximum budget of $305,000 was approved by the congregation at the January annual meeting. I am pleased to let you know that the final cost for the project was $259,717.58. That said, we still have $27,510 of outstanding pledges. When these pledges are received, they will be deposited into the improvement fund to replenish that account, as it was used to pay the bills as they came in for the project.

The remodeling project feedback has been positive and what has been done will serve the church and community for many decades to come. I cannot thank the committee and the congregation enough for their time and support for this project.

God Bless You All,

Brian Rodenberg, President.

Synod to offer Mental Health First Aid Training

The Northeastern Iowa Synod is offering a series of Mental Health First Aid training sessions to help people learn how to identify, understand and respond to someone who is showing signs of mental illness or a substance use disorder.

Just as CPR training helps a person with no clinical training assist an individual following a heart attack, Mental Health First Aid training helps a person provide initial help and support to someone experiencing a mental health crisis until appropriate professional help arrives. The training can benefit any congregation member, especially clergy members, staff, volunteers, parents, and those who work with youth.

Three different in-person sessions will be offered, led by instructors trained through the National Council for

Mental Wellbeing:

Mental Health First Aid for Rural Communities

Monday, Sept. 25, 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Bethany Lutheran, Iowa Falls

Youth Mental Health First Aid
Thursday, Sept. 28, 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m.,
Decorah Lutheran, Decorah

Adult Mental Health First Aid
Saturday, Sept. 30, 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m., St. John Lutheran, Guttenberg, with 2 hours of online pre-work

Each course covers the common signs and symptoms of mental health and substance use challenges, how to interact with a person in crisis, how to connect a person with help, and other information about trauma, substance use and self-care. The youth course will also talk about challenges related to that age group, such as anxiety, depression, eating disorders, attention deficit hyperactive disorder, and social media and bullying.

Participants will learn how to respond to a variety of situations, including when someone is experiencing a panic attack, suicidal thoughts or behaviors, self-injury, hallucinations or delusions, overdose or withdrawal from alcohol or drug use, or reaction to a traumatic event. An important component of each course is the opportunity to practice the intervention strategy, rather than just learn about it, which can make it easier to apply in a real-life situation.

"This class gave me confidence to speak directly without judgment to people who are experiencing mental health issues and help them find appropriate resources to meet their immediate needs," said Bishop Kevin Jones.

REGISTER BY SEPT. 11

The cost to attend is $30 per person for each session. To learn more and to register online, visit www.neiasynod.org/2023/08/mental-health-first-aid-training.

CLERGY APPRECIATION

October is observed as National Clergy Appreciation Month, with Sunday, Oct. 8, set aside as the day to honor rostered ministers. Many congregations use this time to express their gratitude to their pastors, deacons and lay ministers for their contributions and services.

The synod staff would like to share ways that congregations have honored their rostered ministers in the past as part of Clergy Appreciation Month. Please email this information and any photos to hahnm@neiasynod.org.

LSI names Interim President and CEO

The Lutheran Services in Iowa (LSI) Board of Directors recently appointed Dan Dean, vice president of Capacity and Strategy Development, as interim president and CEO for the statewide human services agency. The Board has also established a search committee and initiated the search for the organization's next leader.

Dean has been at LSI for 27 years and has led the agency's personnel, quality improvement and compliance programs across the state. He has also been responsible for strategic planning, development, measurement and oversight of operations at all sites. He replaces John Twardos, who resigned earlier this year.

Leave a Legacy Gift

LSI has responded to the love of Jesus Christ through compassionate service for over 150 years. During this time, we've created a legacy of lifting up and empowering thousands of our Iowa neighbors, thanks to the generosity of donors like you.

You can celebrate your lifetime through a legacy gift, to ensure LSI can continue to provide lifesaving services for those in need. Many of our faithful donors want their gifts to continue after their lifetime, and have elected to leave a legacy through LSI's foundation or the ELCA foundation.

Planned gifts to LSI help to create a firm foundation for our ministry and contribute more than $400,000 each year.

Thanks to the generous compassion of individual donors, congregations such as yours, and our ministry partners at the three synods of the ELCA, we can be confident LSI will be here to meet the changing needs of Iowans for years to come.

You Can Make a Lasting Impact

A longtime supporter of LSI turned an appreciated real estate asset into a charitable remainder unitrust agreement with the ELCA foundation. Because of this agreement, they will receive income from the trust for the remainder of their two lives, and subsequently to their two adult children for a twenty-year term. According to the actuarial tables, this gift will finally terminate in about forty years, leaving a very strong and greatly appreciated impact on LSI's future.

Another LSI donor elected to share their investment by directing a required minimum distribution (RMD) from their IRA directly to LSI. The donor used this contribution to match new or increased gifts during the annual matching gift campaign.

We ask you to consider how you can make a lasting impact and leave a legacy. To learn more about planned giving opportunities, go to LSIowa.org/leave-a-legacy/ or contact Deb Whitford, LSI senior director of philanthropy and church relations, at Deborah.Whitford@LSIowa.org or 563- 676-2065.

Our Mission: Lutheran Services in Iowa responds to the love of Jesus Christ through compassionate service. LSI is an affiliated social ministry partner of the Iowa congregations of the ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) and a member of LSA (Lutheran Services in America). We proudly serve people of all ages, abilities, religions, sexes, gender identities, national origins, ethnicities, races, and sexual orientations. Learn more at LSIowa.org and facebook.com/LSI.iowa
