

Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Commissioning of our SJLS Teachers

August 21-22, 2021

The true tradition of the Church is the Gospel, which is the preaching and administration of Christ Jesus. Other traditions, although not commanded by God, may serve and support that sacred tradition of the Gospel. But the Church dare not “[reject] the commandment of God” in order to establish or hold to “the tradition of men” (Mark 7:8–9). Sinful people attempt to draw near to the Lord “with their mouth” and to honor Him “with their lips,” while their hearts are far removed from Him (Is. 29:13). Yet, He is “the Holy One of Israel,” who brings about salvation by His cross. Therefore, “the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,” but “the deaf shall hear” and “the eyes of the blind shall see” (Is. 29:14–19). This mystery of Christ is profound, for He is the husband of the Church, and He is her Savior. Not because of any works that she has done, but solely for the sake of His great love, He “gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word” (Eph. 5:25–26).

“The Razed Temple Raised” - Isaiah 29:11-19

What is your favorite family tradition? Perhaps it is an annual celebration such as Halloween, Thanksgiving, or Christmas. Perhaps it is a more common tradition—an old family recipe or a favorite game. Traditions are passed down from generation to generation. They are often wonderful and meaningful. But sometimes we pass down traditions that are not good for us or the world. The Israelites had passed down traditions related to divorce and giving that were not what God had intended. Jesus rightly criticizes such traditions. Today we consider the most trustworthy tradition that we continually pass from generation to generation: Jesus.

INVOCATION

OPENING SENTENCES

P: O Lord, I love the habitation of Your house,

C: and the place where Your glory dwells.

P: Lord, restore the fortunes of Your people.

C: Let all Your people rejoice and be glad!

P: From generation to generation, You are our God.

C: Your Word shall be heard among our children and our children’s children.

P: Let us ever share the joys of Jesus.

C: Let us spread His grace and love to all the nations.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

P: Indeed, it is good to be here, worshiping the Lord and receiving His gifts for our forgiveness, life, and salvation. Yet, we must admit that there have been times when we have taken God for granted. There have been times when we have created our own religious, political, and social traditions and given those human-made traditions more attention than Jesus. Still, our heavenly Father invites us to come to Him and ask for forgiveness.

Silence for reflection.

P: Heavenly Father,

C: we confess that we have not always looked to You for all good. We have created idols for ourselves. We confess our sins of thought, word, and deed. Forgive us, Father, for these weak failures. Renew us and lead us, so that we follow You and look to You for all good, for the sake of Jesus. Amen.

P: Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die and rise for You and because of Jesus forgives You all Your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen. We are forgiven in Christ. He is our true inheritance forever. Amen.

(Sun. 9 & 11 a.m.): Commissioning of the 2021-22 St. John's Lutheran Teaching Staff
(All Services): Commissioning of the Growing Roots Campaign Team

SALUTATION

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

OLD TESTAMENT READING: Isaiah 29:11-19

We can hide nothing from God, including the intention of our hearts.

God sees that His people's devotion to Him is merely lip service, and their hearts are not in it.

¹¹The vision of all this has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed. When men give it to one who can read, saying, "Read this," he says, "I cannot, for it is sealed." ¹²And when they give the book to one who cannot read, saying, "Read this," he says, "I cannot read." ¹³And the Lord said: "Because this people draw near with their mouth and honor me with their lips, while their hearts are far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment taught by men, ¹⁴therefore, behold, I will again do wonderful things with this people, with wonder upon wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the discernment of their discerning men shall be hidden." ¹⁵Ah, you who hide deep from the LORD your counsel, whose deeds are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us? Who knows us?" ¹⁶You turn things upside down! Shall the potter be regarded as the clay, that the thing made should say of its maker, "He did not make me"; or the thing formed say of him who formed it, "He has no understanding"? ¹⁷Is it not yet a very little while until Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be regarded as a forest? ¹⁸In that day the deaf shall hear the words of a book, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see. ¹⁹The meek shall obtain fresh joy in the LORD, and the poor among mankind shall exult in the Holy One of Israel.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE READING: Ephesians 5:22-33

Paul gives instructions for the order and behavior within the Christian household, relationships that are to be defined by respect, love, and devotion.

²²Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. ²³For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. ²⁴Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands.

²⁵Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, ²⁶that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, ²⁷so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. ²⁸In the same way husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. ²⁹For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church, ³⁰because we are members of his body. ³¹“Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.” ³²This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church. ³³However, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

(Sun. 9 a.m.) WORSHIP PRESENTATION by the 1st Review

HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 7:1-13

Jesus made it very clear to the Pharisees and scribes that genuine heart-felt worship of God comes before keeping tradition and that love for God and one another comes first.

Pastor: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the seventh chapter.

People: Glory to You, O Lord.

¹When the Pharisees gathered to [Jesus], with some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem, ²they saw that some of his disciples ate with hands that were defiled, that is, unwashed. ³(For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands, holding to the tradition of the elders, ⁴and when they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other traditions that they observe, such as the washing of cups and pots and copper vessels and dining couches.) ⁵And the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, “Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?” ⁶And he said to them, “Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, “‘This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; ⁷in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’ ⁸You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men.” ⁹And he said to them, “You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! ¹⁰For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’; and, ‘Whoever reviles father or mother must surely die.’ ¹¹But you say, ‘If a man tells his father or his mother, ‘Whatever you would have gained from me is Corban’ (that is, given to God)— ¹²then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother, ¹³thus making void the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And many such things you do.”

Pastor: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, O Christ.

SERMON MESSAGE: “The Razed Temple Raised” - Isaiah 29:11-19

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

MORE NOTES & NEWS ITEMS

“ON THE ROAD AGAIN!” Just a little bit soggy...

For the first time in over a year, forty one Golden Eagles set out together on a road trip to northeast Ohio last Thursday, August 12th. Our day was filled with learning about the history of Ohio’s early canal system, visiting a winery for some tasting and a delicious dinner, and even an ice cream treat. BUT... the show did not go on! Just as we were getting settled into our seats for the outdoor drama, “Trumpet in the Land”, the production had to be cancelled due to a dangerous storm moving into the area! We quickly moved to our bus where “Big Willy”, our genial bus driver, saw us safely home.

Thanks to all for being patient and understanding as our plans for the day had to be altered. Although we weren’t able to see the production, we did enjoy the fellowship and travel through some beautiful areas of Ohio. Please hold on to the rain checks you were given for “Trumpet in the Land”. We will regroup and probably try to reschedule for another time. Be watching for more Golden Eagles news coming soon. “To God be the Glory!”

GriefShare begins on August 26, 2021

The fall GriefShare program begins in-person classes on Thursday evenings (Aug. 26 – Nov. 18) from 6:00 – 8:00 pm at St. Paul Lutheran Church, 7960 State Route 38, Milford Center, OH 43045. Anyone who is grieving the death of a loved one is welcome to attend any of the GriefShare sessions. Each session is “self-contained,” so you do not have to attend in sequence. The 1st session, titled "Is This Normal?" introduces participants to GriefShare and explains why their grief experience is harder than they imagined, why the intensity and duration of their emotions are normal and appropriate, and despite how they feel right now, there is reason for hope. Each GriefShare session includes a video seminar, small group discussion, and workbook study. There is a $15 suggested donation, which covers the cost of the workbook. To register, please visit www.griefshare.org or text Deaconess Janet Nicol at 614-561-7411. Due to the potential spread of the COVID-19 virus, we ask that you please stay home if you are sick or have any symptoms. Class will take place in the Gathering Room, where proper seating distance and cleanliness is being maintained. If you wish to wear a mask, please feel free to do so. We welcome you to invite your family and/or friends, who are also grieving, to attend with you.
