

Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

July 19-20, 2025

This Sunday's theme focuses on the Word of God. The Introit compares God's Word to a lamp and light for our darkened way. The Collect asks for God's Spirit that we may hear His Word. In the Epistle, Paul makes clear that he is a minister making the Word of God fully known, the mystery that is Christ. The Gradual draws attention to those who preach God's Word. And the Gospel provides the familiar account of Jesus visiting Mary and Martha. Mary chooses the good portion of listening to the Word of Christ. In the preceding chapters of Genesis, we see Abram and Lot, together with their families, servants, and flocks, settling in Canaan. Because their possessions were great, they had to separate, and Lot chose the area of the Jordan valley near Sodom. When neighboring kings attacked Sodom and Gomorrah, Lot was taken captive, but Abram rescued Lot and returned the possessions of the fallen cities. God then appeared to Abram and made a covenant with him, promising that he would be blessed with offspring as numerous as the stars. Abram believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness. He was also told that his offspring would become servants in a foreign land, but they would then return to this promised land. Abram's wife, Sarai, was barren and, wanting a child, gave Abram her servant Hagar, who conceived and bore him Ishmael. This was not the child of promise, and his birth caused considerable tension. When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the Lord appeared to him to make another covenant, which involved changing his name to Abraham, changing Sarai's name to Sarah, and giving him circumcision for all males eight days old. God promised that in a year, Sarah would bear the child of promise.

PREPARATION FOR HOLY COMMUNION

Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord. A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment on himself. 1 Corinthians 11:27-29

The following is a summary of what we believe and teach as Missouri Synod Lutheran Christians. Because we care for you, we ask that you carefully review the following statements:

1. I have been baptized into the name of the one true God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Matthew 28:16-20
2. I have been instructed concerning the meaning of Holy Communion, understand the importance of self-examination prior to coming to the Lord's Supper and have made my confirmation of faith. 1 Corinthians 11:27-29
3. I confess that I am a sinner in need of forgiveness. I am sorry for my sins. 1 John 1:8-9
4. I believe that Jesus Christ, God's Son, is my Savior from sin, death, and the power of the devil. Romans 3:21-24
5. I believe that the body and blood of Jesus Christ are really present in the bread and wine of Holy Communion, and I desire to receive Christ's body and blood, given and shed for my forgiveness. 1 Corinthians 11:23-26
6. If possible, so far as it depends on me, I seek to live peaceably with all. Romans 12:17-19
7. By the power of the Holy Spirit, I desire and intend to lead a more Godly and Christ-like life, trusting in God's promises and obeying His commands. Galatians 5:22-24

If you unreservedly agree with the seven points above, you are invited to come to the Lord's Supper. If you do not agree with one or more of the seven points, please refrain from participating in Holy Communion lest you sin against the body and blood of the Lord. If you agree with the seven points above but are not a member of St. John's, we welcome you to the Lord's Table and invite you to give prayerful consideration to joining our partnership in the Gospel. You are encouraged to speak with a pastor or elder prior to communing regarding any point(s) of disagreement and/or regarding the process of joining St. John's.

Gluten-Free Communion Wafers: A gluten-free communion wafer option is now available for those who are allergic. They are located in the brass cup in the middle of the communion plate.

Communion Wine: For those who have health related, or other issues with drinking alcohol, please take the purple individual communion cup. It contains all water with one drop of wine.

“God’s Word Gets the Last Laugh” - Genesis 18:1–10a

We try to exercise our freedom and planning, but God’s way is always better. It was better for Abraham and Sarah in the Old Testament Reading and gets Mary’s attention in the Gospel. It was still taking some time for the new believers of Colossae to fathom that God had done so much for them in Christ. And when their friends found the treasure of the Gospel, they, too, must have laughed that God had such gracious plans for them, plans that are always better than they imagined.

TODAY'S BIBLE READINGS

Old Testament Reading: Genesis 18:1-10a

Abraham's supernatural encounter with three men near his tent changed his life forever. The Lord spoke to Abraham a prophecy that his barren and aged wife, Sarah, would bear a child.

Upon hearing this, Sarah broke out into laughter.

¹ The LORD appeared to [Abraham] by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the door of his tent in the heat of the day. ²He lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing in front of him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed himself to the earth ³and said, "O Lord, if I have found favor in your sight, do not pass by your servant. ⁴Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree, ⁵while I bring a morsel of bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said." ⁶And Abraham went quickly into the tent to Sarah and said, "Quick! Three seahs of fine flour! Knead it, and make cakes." ⁷And Abraham ran to the herd and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to a young man, who prepared it quickly. ⁸Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them. And he stood by them under the tree while they ate. ⁹They said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "She is in the tent." ¹⁰The LORD said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah your wife shall have a son."

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading: Colossians 1:21-29

We have been reconciled to God through the physical death and resurrection of Jesus Christ so that we are no longer alienated from God but are holy in His sight.

²¹You, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, ²²he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, ²³if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. ²⁴Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, ²⁵of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, ²⁶the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. ²⁷To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. ²⁸Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. ²⁹For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me.

Holy Gospel: Luke 10:38-42

Sisters, Mary and Martha, opened their home to the Lord Jesus. While Martha was busy preparing for her special guest, Mary was sitting at His feet listening to all Jesus said. Martha felt upset and asked the Lord to tell Mary to help her with the work, but Jesus described the true problem. Hospitality is important, but unless Jesus is the center of our lives, we truly have nothing to share with our guests.

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the tenth chapter.

C Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

³⁸Now as they went on their way, Jesus entered a village. And a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. ³⁹And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his teaching. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted with much serving. And she went up to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me." ⁴¹But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, ⁴²but one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ.
