November Greetings from St. John's Child Development Center

We have so much to be thankful for here at the center. We hired two new staff members. Ms. Sumer Simonson is our new cook, and she is doing a wonderful job. Her son Easton is in our center and our 4K program. The infant room has a new teacher Gretchen Hulka and we are happy to have her on board also. Gretchen has a little guy named Levi and he is also in the center.

With Thanksgiving just around the corner, we will be having a Thanksgiving Feast with our children and parents at the center. I sure hope this will not scare off the new cook. We always have a good group of volunteers so I never worry but Sumer might. Hope she reads the Cornerstone as I set the date for November 16th, Thursday.

The center needed a Bye-Bye Buggy and thanks to the funds we received from Butter Braids last year we were able to purchase this buggy. Have you ever heard the song "The Wheels on the Bus"? It is an American folk song written by Verna Hills back in 1937. Very popular song in early childhood programs and young children. Our new buggy is a "Big Yellow Bus!" It's a six-seater and the children love it. Most likely not the bus Verna Hills was thinking about when she wrote that song back in 1937.

Prayers for the world and the pain and suffering we see on the news. Be thankful for God's blessings and share these blessings with those in need this Thanksgiving. God is good!

Kindergarten through 4th grade spent time with Ryan from the Portage Fire Department learning fire safety in October

The first 2 weeks of October, our school had MAP testing to measure our students learning. Even the second graders enjoyed using their Chromebooks to take these exams.

Lego Club meets the second Monday starting with a Bible Devotion and then build based on the devotion. In October, they read Romans 10:17, "So faith comes from hearing and hearing through the Word of Christ." They then discussed where they hear the Word of God and built churches, homes, schools, and a boat.

Surviving the Holidays seminar

St. John's will host a Surviving the Holidays seminar on Thursday, November 16 at 4:30 p.m. in the Christian Life Center. A $10.00 free-will donation to cover the cost of participant materials is appreciated. The Surviving the Holidays seminar is especially for people who are grieving a loved one's death. You'll learn:

- How to deal with the many emotions you'll face during the holidays
- What to do about traditions and other coming changes
- Helpful tips for surviving social events
- How to discover hope for your future

Grace & Growth Grant Update – November 2023

November—8

Over the summer, we focused on just a few things for our Grace & Growth worker wellness initiative. We offered to pay for half of a summer fitness membership at LaVita for any of our staff. We also held a walking challenge that went from May 15 through August 15. Each week, we checked in with each other. At the end of the challenge, I counted up the check-ins, and we donated $1 per check-in to Pregnancy Resource Center.

The annual all-staff meeting happens every year in August. This year the grant money paid for us to have it off-site with special guest speakers from Doxology, an LCMS church worker support organization. Dr. Bev Yahnke and Rev. David Fleming presented seminars all day long, focusing on the psychological and spiritual demands our workers face. Then they sat down with some of the leadership from our ministries and spoke to them directly about their struggles and the future of St. John's. It was a pretty intense day!

There are a few more things scheduled before this grant money is depleted. Thank you for your continued prayers and support of all our staff at the child development center, the school, and the church.

Luther's Large Catechism

In this edition of the Cornerstone, we continue to publish portions of Luther's Large Catechism for your continued growth in God's Word. The text for this series is taken from the Triglotta, a public domain version of The Book of Concord. For a more up-to-date reading, consider purchasing Concordia: The Lutheran Confessions at cph.org.

The Lord's Prayer

The First Petition

Hallowed be Thy name.

This is, indeed, somewhat obscure, and not expressed in good German, for in our mother-tongue we would say: Heavenly Father, help that by all means Thy name may be holy. But what is it to pray that His name may be holy? Is it not holy already? Answer: Yes, it is always holy in its nature, but in our use it is not holy. For God's name was given us when we became Christians and were baptized, so that we are called children of God and have the Sacraments, by which He so incorporates us in Himself that everything which is God's must serve for our use.

Here now the great need exists for which we ought to be most concerned, that this name have its proper honor, be esteemed holy and sublime as the greatest treasure and sanctuary that we have; and that as godly children we pray that the name of God, which is already holy in heaven, may also be and remain holy with us upon earth and in all the world.

But how does it become holy among us? Answer, as plainly as it can be said: When both our doctrine and life are godly and Christian. For since in this prayer we call God our Father, it is our duty always to deport and demean ourselves as godly children, that He may not receive shame, but honor and praise from us.

Now the name of God is profaned by us either in words or in works. (For whatever we do upon the earth must be either words or works, speech or act.) In the first place, then, it is profaned when men preach, teach, and speak in the name of God what is false and misleading, so that His name must serve to adorn and to find a market for falsehood. That is, indeed, the greatest profanation and dishonor of the divine name. Furthermore, also when men, by swearing, cursing, conjuring, etc., grossly abuse the holy name as a cloak for their shame. In the second place, also by an openly wicked life and works, when those who are called Christians and the people of God are adulterers, drunkards, misers, envious, and slanderers. Here again must the name of God come to shame and be profaned because of us. For just as it is a shame and disgrace to a natural father to have a bad, perverse child that opposes him in words and deeds, so that on its account he suffers contempt and reproach, so also it brings dishonor upon God if we who are called by His name and have all manner of goods from Him teach, speak, and live in any other manner except as godly and heavenly children, so that people say of us that we must be not God's, but the devil's children.

Thus you see that in this petition we pray just for that which God demands in the Second Commandment; namely, that His name be not taken in vain to swear, curse, lie, deceive, etc., but be usefully employed to the praise and honor of God. For whoever employs the name of God for any sort of wrong profanes and desecrates this holy name, as aforetime a church was considered desecrated when a murder or any other crime had been committed in it, or when a pyx or relic was desecrated, as being holy in themselves, yet become unholy in use. Thus this point is easy and clear if only the language is understood, that to hallow is the same as in our idiom to praise, magnify, and honor both in word and deed.

Here, now, learn how great need there is of such prayer. For because we see how full the world is of sects and false teachers, who all wear the holy name as a cover and sham for their doctrines of devils, we ought by all means to pray without ceasing, and to cry and call upon God against all such as preach and believe falsely and whatever opposes and persecutes our Gospel and pure doctrine, and would suppress it, as bishops tyrants, enthusiasts, etc. Likewise also for ourselves who have the Word of God, but are not thankful for it, nor live as we ought according to the same. If now you pray for this with your heart, you can be sure that it pleases God; for He will not hear anything more dear to Him than that His honor and praise is exalted above everything else, and His Word is taught in its purity and is esteemed precious and dear.<sup>1</sup>

Church Word: Ministry

The word ministry is used very often in church circles and in the world of politics. In European countries, the word Minister means the same thing as we mean when we say the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, etc. A ministry, or portfolio, is the government department they supervise. In church, we talk about children's ministry, music ministry, various programs for the poor — any work of a Christian to serve God and others in the name of God. Until the last few centuries, however, the word was used to mean pastor — a man called to the Office of the Public Ministry — and the work he does.

Ministry is all about service. In fact, the word for ministry is a Latin translation of the Greek word diakonia, which means personal service. Ancient Greeks used several words for service: douleuo, to serve because you are a slave, latreuo, to work for a wage, leitourgia, public service and therapeuo, to serve willingly, to care for, especially the sick.

For the Greeks, almost all service was viewed as demeaning. Jesus turned that around. Jesus said that he came to serve, not to be served, so Christians must serve each other. (Matthew 20:26-28) The church took this charge to heart. They called themselves servants and slaves of Jesus. (Acts 4:29, Romans 1:1, Philippians 1:1, Revelation 1:1) They concluded that if Jesus loved us, we should love each other.

The New Testament used the Greek words for service in two ways. In general, it came to stand for the preaching of the word and the sharing of the sacraments by Christians in every way. In its narrow use, it refers to the work of pastors. To carry out ministry, Jesus created the office of the Pastoral Ministry and the Apostles created the deaconate to support them. Today, pastors, professional church workers, and laypeople serve together in ministry — to live and work dedicated to God and to others. In this way, we proclaim together the gospel and show the love of God to the world.

Kept in the True Faith

might have on the battle. Yet the moment the battle begins, all of that goes away. “The fog of war” sets in. You can’t see clearly. Sometimes you mistake enemies for friends. The battle might be won everywhere but where you are.

In this sin-filled world, you are at war and in the middle of a battle. The old and new man compete for control of your life. The world and the devil try to bend you to their will. Sin, sickness, grief and death explode all around you. In the middle of this chaos, the Holy Spirit fights to keep you in the true faith. The good news is that he will. Nothing can separate you from the love of God in Christ Jesus. (Romans 8:38-39) The Holy Spirit who began a good work in you will complete it on the day Christ returns. (Philippians 1:6)

We can be sure that we will be with Jesus when we die because he promises we will. (John 12:26) It does not depend on how many good works we do, whether we confessed and repented of all of our sins, whether we really accepted Jesus as our Lord or not. It all depends on God, who does it all for us and promised we would be with him forever. He guarantees it. After all, he gave us the Holy Spirit.

Military planners labor long hours to plan every detail of a campaign before the first soldier or sailor even receives their orders. They consider carefully all of the strengths and weaknesses of their enemy and their own troops. They weigh every possible variation and the effects unforeseen weather

Give Thanks with a Grateful Heart!

The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod
LCMS Stewardship Ministry
Newsletter Article – November 2023

Our Father in heaven has claimed us as His own. By the shedding of His Son's blood, by His death for our sins and His resurrection for our justification, God the Father has received us back into His family. By water combined with His Word, promise and name, the Holy Spirit has taken up residence in us. We belong to Father, Son and Holy Spirit. He is in us, and we are in Him. And being in Him, all things are ours. In Him, we are richly and abundantly blessed.

Our true treasure and wealth is that we belong to the most holy Trinity and everything that is His belongs also to us: righteousness, peace, eternal life. Even our temporal treasures are gifts from His fatherly, divine goodness and mercy.

We receive our treasures from Him, and thus, as good stewards of His varied grace, we manage them in such a way that they may be returned to Him. We bring them to Him, hallowed through prayers of thanksgiving and God's Holy Word, as a sacrifice. Thus all our possessions, as gifts from God, are also sacrifices to Him, from which we eat to nourish our bodies and share with our family, neighbors and fellow Christians, with the poor and even our enemies, as holy things given by our holy God. His temporal gifts are blessings to and for us, and bring blessing upon us even as they are pressed into His service for His kingdom and the souls that receive them.

Thus we place all that we have into God's hands. He never fails to remember us and pours out the fullness of His promises upon us. We give thanks for all that He has done, is doing and will continue to do. We give thanks by not taking for ourselves, but giving to all even as our heavenly Father has given to us.

As we prepare for Thanksgiving celebrations, may we all give thanks continually for all that we are and all that we have because of God's providential care. And may we be all the more diligent in bringing everything that we have received from God to Him, so that He may bless it and employ it for the good of all — even for us. For to the one who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance.
