Arise and Shine this Advent

Darkness vs light. It is a stark contrast. Though the initial creation is darkness, God speaks light into existence. Though a different darkness descends on creation at the Fall in to sin, God speaks words of hope and promise. Throughout the dark times of sin and death God keeps promising the light. And in the darkness of night God delivers us the “light that shines in the darkness” (John 1:5) with the birth of His Son. During this Advent season we will be celebrating God’s promises of Light that are fulfilled at Christmas with the theme “Arise and Shine.”

Advent services will be at noon and 6:00 p.m., Wednesdays, December 4, 11 and 18. The noon service will be followed by a light fellowship lunch. The evening service will be preceded by a meal starting at 5:00 p.m. We will be using the order of Evening Prayer for our service which we used last year. The opening of the service is titled, “The Service of Light” and the Psalm we use is Psalm 141. An audio recording of these is on our website if you would like to listen a few times to become familiar with the music.

Wednesday, December 4—Rising Light (Isaiah 60:1): Living in the light of Jesus, we prepare to celebrate His birth. Repenting of our sins, we put away the works of darkness and dress in the armor of light.

Wednesday, December 11—Healing Light (Malachi 4:2): With repentant joy we anticipate the birth of our Savior. We listen to His Word and live according to it until He comes again.

Wednesday, December 18—Eternal Light (Daniel 12:3): We look forward to Jesus’ Second Advent, when we will be raised in glory to live in his presence and shine like stars forever. Come, Lord Jesus!

Christmas Eve services will be held on Tuesday, December 24 at 3:00 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. We will have one service on Christmas Day at 9:00 a.m. Arise, Shine for your Light has come!

Christmas Decorating

You’re invited to come and help decorate the church for the Christmas season on Monday, December 2, starting at 9:00 a.m. We’ve gotten so good at decorating that we’re usually done before noon. Coffee and rolls will be provided.

See page 6 and 7 for more Christmas Events

Ponderings from the Pew

“Expect to be attacked,” Pastor Neubauer said in a recent sermon. Did the words resonate with you? Did you contemplate them, relate to them, apply them to your life? Expect to be attacked. Hmmm. It’s not like we live in a war zone. Certainly, in our little neck of the woods, we live a peaceful existence. We come and go at will without fear. “Expect to be attacked” doesn’t really seem to apply to us. Even on a spiritual level, we have it pretty easy right?

There’s no government pressure on where we worship. We don’t live in fear of someone suspecting we are Christians. In fact, being Christian can woo us into believing we are above harm; somehow exempt because God has our backs. And certainly He does for Christ has secured our salvation in eternity.

But what about while we are still here in a sinful world? Do you recognize where Satan is actively undermining you? Are you being “watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking (you) to devour” (1 Peter 5:8)? Is your bad luck more than bad luck? Could it be that the Prince of darkness literally stalks us? I think so.

Our daughter, Chelsie’s new home came with some repairs required. The heating system needs replacing and then the water heater seemed to quit. Arch went to replace the elements but could not get the tank to drain. So he installed a new water heater, moving the old one to her furnace room near the floor drain. When he tried again to drain the old one, the whole plug came out along with a whoosh of 50 gallons of water. It was not a good time to discover that: 1) the floor drain couldn’t handle the flow and 2) the floor slants away from the drain towards the common family room wall with carpet on the other side! As we frantically pushed water towards the drain with a narrow mop and a large piece of cardboard, Arch said, “Why us?” I said, “Why not us? We aren’t special, and let’s face it, Satan is alive and well, and clearly quite busy.” We’ve been in his cross hairs before so our reactions to these kinds of ventures tends to be underwhelming – more like – oh, of course it went sideways! Owen helped our spirits by repeatedly poking his head in the room and asking, “so, how’s it going?” LOL. The point is, is it just bad ju ju, or is it the devil chiseling away at us trying to get us to doubt God?

We aren’t promised a struggle free life because we are Christians. Good and bad happen to everyone regardless of race, creed, color, religious or atheist beliefs, democrat or republican. This world is sinful. We all suffer the consequences here. Our hope is in our salvation. Our hope is in Christ. Our peace is in heaven with Him. “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to His great mercy, He has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God’s power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials...Though you have not seen Him, you love Him. Though you do not now see Him, you believe in Him and rejoice with joy...obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.” (1 Pe 1:3-9).

To God alone be the glory!

Renee’Anderson

Successful Blood Drive

Blessed are the volunteers, for without them, what would we do? I'd like to thank everyone who volunteered to work registration, serve or provide snacks, and especially those who donated blood during our blood drive on November 4 and 5. There were 117 donors who were able to successfully donate for a total of 147 blood products. This wonderful outcome could not be accomplished without the help of our volunteers and donors. Thank you so much, everyone, for your support!

Elayne Luiken, Blood Drive Coordinator

Stewardship Corner—Jesus is the Reason for the Season

Here we are, ready to celebrate the birth of Christ - a major event, even for those who don't believe in Him. It used to be that merchants would wait until after Thanksgiving to begin the celebration by filling their shelves with enticing gifts, decorations, and all the trappings but now we see that it often starts in October.

How different from the first Christmas! Mary and Joseph settled down in a stable. There were no photographers waiting outside to snap the first picture of the new king. No one knew what was happening! No one, that is, except for the parents and the host of Heaven who made the announcement. But to whom was this announcement made? To the powerful who would speed through the towns and villages, spreading the news? No, it was made to shepherds who were outcasts, hired hands who were so low on the social scale that they weren't even allowed to give testimony in a court of law. They weren't even allowed to come into the temple.

Yet these were the ones chosen by God to tell the good news. These ostracized creatures saw the angels with "...the glory of the Lord [shining] around them..." They heard the message the angels brought: "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior Who is Christ the Lord... You will find a baby...lying in a manger" (Luke 2:9, 11-12). They saw, they listened, and then they went to see for themselves. After receiving the Good News, they shared it. "When they had seen Him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this Child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them" (Luke 2:17-18).

If lowly shepherds could tell the story, can't we as well? "All who hear it were amazed," Luke writes, but he doesn't say all believed. All we're asked to do is tell the story. How could fear, uncertainty, or apathy hold us back? This is the biggest news mankind has ever received! As stewards of the Gospel, we have no choice but to follow the example of the shepherds and "spread the word concerning what has been told [us] about this Child."

A Note of Thanks for Recovery Bibles

The Board of Evangelism recently donated several Bibles for jail ministry. We received the following thank you note:

Thank you so much for your continued support of the jail ministry—both by donating Celebrate Recovery Bibles and with your prayers. The men and women who receive these Bibles are overwhelmed with gratitude—most have never had a Bible, and all are transformed in one way or another by God's Word. His Spirit is very active within the jail—and your generosity in His Name is so appreciated. Thank you. And may the Lord continue to bless all your ministries.

This program from the Minnesota North District is designed to help you reach out and share the message with them. With all these Christmas events happening this is a great time to invite someone to attend an event with you. Release Time students made cards for soldiers on November 20 and then enjoyed special treats. The older kids had cupcakes and the younger group had turkeys (thanks to the creativity and patience of Laurie Kimball and Lois Just). And, no, Pastor Neubauer did not do all the cards for his class. Wonder what the kids are looking at out the window?
