Participation in Summer Program Activities & Waiver

Parents agree and consent to Student participating in all summer program activities ("Activities"), unless Parents provide the School's Business Office written notice to the contrary. Parents acknowledge and understand the risks of accident, exposure to infectious diseases (such as COVID-19), serious illness and injury, and even death from participation in all Activities. Parents acknowledge that even if they and Student follow all of the School's safety directions, instructions, and rules, and exercise utmost personal care, there will remain a certain irreducible inherent risk to Student, and Parents accept that risk.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Parents, on behalf of Parents and Student, completely absolve, release, and waive any potential claims Parents or Student may have against the School, its officers, trustees, employees, agents, and volunteers ("School Parties") for any damages, claims, or liabilities resulting from, arising out of, or related to Student participating in Activities, including, but not limited to, claims for personal injury or illness, emotional distress, property damage, or wrongful death occurring to Student, except to the extent arising from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the School Parties.

Indemnification & Hold Harmless

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Parents agree to indemnify and hold School Parties harmless from any and all claims, damages, liabilities, expenses, and costs of any and all injuries or damages arising from Student's or Parents' negligent, intentional, or other conduct related to Student attending the School Summer Program and participating in Activities, except to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the School Parties.
