A SPECIAL WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS:

Welcome to Saint Michael’s Lutheran Church! We are a historic congregation committed to continuing the mission of Jesus Christ in our community. We are very excited to have you worshipping the Lord with us this evening. You are always welcome in our church! Here are a few helpful things to know about Saint Michael’s:

- Our beautiful and historic church building was built in 1906. Unfortunately, this means that it was not built with restrooms. Restrooms are located in our education building next door.
- A changing table for infants is located in classroom 4 in the education building.
- During our worship service, attendance books will be passed across the pews. Please take a moment to register your presence with us in the book and include your address and phone number so we can follow up with you in the future.
- Our pastor, Rev. Nate Hill, is always willing to meet with you to answer any questions that you might have about our church and beliefs or to be of help in any way that he is able. Please introduce yourself to him this evening. He will be thrilled to meet you!

We hope that you find Saint Michael’s to be a place where you feel at home as we worship our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

Lord of har - vest, grant that we Whole - some grain and pure may be.

(Men)

3 For the Lord, our God, shall come And shall take His har-vest home,

From His field shall in that day All of-fens-es purge a-way,

Give His an-gels charge at last In the fire the tares to cast,

But the fruit-ful ears to store In His gar-ner ev-er-more.

(Congregation)

4 E-ven so, Lord, quick-ly come To Thy fi-nal har-vest home;

Gath-er Thou Thy peo-ple in, Free from sor-row, free from sin,

There, for-ev-er pu-ri-fied, In Thy gar-ner to a-bide:

Come with all Thine an-gels, come, Raise the glo-rious har-vest home.

Old Testament Lesson

Deuteronomy 8:1-10

¹“The whole commandment that I command you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that the LORD swore to give to your fathers. ²And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. ³And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. ⁴Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. ⁵Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you. ⁶So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him. ⁷For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, flowing out in the valleys and hills, ⁸a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, ⁹a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper. ¹⁰And you shall eat and be full, and you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Thanksgiving Prayer

P For fried eggs and bacon, cream and peaches, and butter,

C We thank You, Lord!

P For steak and potatoes, vegetables and pie,

C We thank You Lord!

P For beef, pork, turkey, lamb, and, chicken,

C We thank You, Lord!

P For the starving, the millions who will go hungry this Thanksgiving,

C We do not give thanks.

P For our selfishness in not sharing with others the great abundance that you have given us,

C We are not thankful.

P For those unable to work or take care of their children,

C We are not thankful.

P Yes, Lord, while we live gloriously, others suffer; while we have many good things, others have nothing.

C Lord, have mercy on us; Christ have mercy on us; Lord have mercy on us.

P God has had mercy on us and, for the sake of His Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, has forgiven us all of our sins, including the sins of selfishness and thanklessness. Let us join in giving thanks and praise to Him who has showered us with His mercy:

4 The Lord, my God, be praised, My God, the ev - er - liv - ing,
 To whom the heav'n - ly host Their laud and praise are giv - ing.
 The Lord, my God, be praised, In whose great name I boast,
 God Fa - ther, God the Son, And God the Ho - ly Ghost.

Epistle Lesson

Philippians 4:6-20

⁶do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. ⁷And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

⁸Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. ⁹What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

¹⁰I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me. You were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. ¹¹Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. ¹²I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. ¹³I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

¹⁴Yet it was kind of you to share my trouble. ¹⁵And you Philippians yourselves know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church entered into partnership with me in giving and receiving, except you only. ¹⁶Even in Thessalonica you sent me help for my needs once and again. ¹⁷Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that increases to your credit. ¹⁸I have received full payment, and more. I am well supplied, having received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. ¹⁹And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. ²⁰To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

The one e - ter - nal God, Whom earth and heav'n a - dore;

Thanksgiving Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

¹¹On the way to Jerusalem [Jesus] was passing along between Samaria and Galilee.

¹²And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance ¹³and lifted up their voices, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.”

¹⁴When he saw them he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went they were cleansed. ¹⁵Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; ¹⁶and he fell on his face at Jesus’ feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷Then Jesus answered, “Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? ¹⁸Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” ¹⁹And he said to him, “Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well.”

A This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to you, O Christ!

The Confession of Faith

The First Article of the Apostles’ Creed

(Dr. Luther’s Explanation – from the Small Catechism)

C I believe that God has made me and all creatures; that He has given me my body and soul, eyes, ears, and all my members, my reason and all my senses, and still preserves them. Also, clothing and shoes, meat and drink, house and home, wife and children, fields, cattle and all my goods; that He richly and daily provides me with all that I need to support this body and life; That He defends me against all danger, and guards and protects me from all evil; And all this purely out of fatherly divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me; For all which it is my duty to thank and praise, to serve and obey Him. This is most certainly true.

1 Sing to the Lord of har - vest, Sing songs of love and praise;
 2 God makes the clouds rain good - ness, The des - erts bloom and spring,
 3 Bring to this sa - cred al - tar The gifts His good - ness gave,

With joy - ful hearts and voic - es Your al - le - lu - ias raise.
 The hills leap up in glad - ness, The val - leys laugh and sing.
 The gold - en sheaves of har - vest, The souls Christ died to save.

By Him the roll - ing sea - sons In fruit - ful or - der move;
 God fills them with His full - ness, All things with large in - crease;
 Your hearts lay down be - fore Him When at His feet you fall,

Sing to the Lord of har - vest A joy - ous song of love.
 He crowns the year with bless - ing, With plen - ty and with peace.
 And with your lives a - dore Him Who gave His life for all.
