

Welcome! On behalf of the St. Paul faith community. As St. Paul's central mission is to share Jesus by loving and serving all, we offer three distinctly different worship opportunities and encourage you to try each.

Further, since it could be said that St. Paul is three worshipping communities under one roof, we hope you will introduce yourself to persons often as you take advantage of the many fellowship and service opportunities. These opportunities are designed to bring us together and send us out as disciples of our Lord. To learn more please find me or Deacon Kathleen Cartledge during the coffee fellowship held between the 8:30 and 9:45 services in the Margaret Lee Fellowship Center (Gymnasium). We would be happy to answer any questions you may have. You may also join us on Tuesdays at 10 a.m. at What's Cookin', a downtown Aiken restaurant for "Come To The Table", a time of prayer and conversation.

We hope that you will prayerfully consider becoming a part of this community of disciples. If you would like to talk further feel free to text, call, or email at (803) 514-8950 or erby@atlanticbb.net. As we seek to be a green congregation we print a limited number of bulletins. They are for first-time worshippers and found on the slatted wall in the narthex. However, using two high-definition screens ensures that all can easily follow the service. That said, our Bulletin and News are emailed to worshippers weekly. To receive a copy, call or email our Office Administrator, Rhonda Kirlew, at 803-649-4021 or officeadmin@stpaulc.net. I hope to share in worship with you soon and look forward to getting to know you better. Please know you are in my prayers.

Standing With You In The Grip Of God's Grace,

Jeff Erbskorn, Senior Pastor
