ST. PAUL EPISTLE

Why We Don't Fear

"No one is so thoroughly superstitious as the godless man. The Christian is composed by the belief of a wise, all-ruling Father, whose presence fills the void unknown with light and order; but to the man who has dethroned God, the spirit-land is, indeed, in the words of the Hebrew poet, "a land of darkness and the shadow of death," without any order, where the light is as darkness. Life and death to him are haunted grounds, filled with goblin forms of vague and shadowy dread." So wrote Harriet Ward Beecher in "Uncle Tom's Cabin".

She hits on something we often forget. Our God is good and he is for us. We don't live in a world of arbitrary spiritual forces or simply cold heartless processes. We don't live in fear as God's people because we know who's in control. Even when things don't go our way, perhaps especially then, it is comforting to know that God works all things for our good. When we don't understand the things happening in our life we can still have confidence and peace. Not based on our ability to cope or overcome but because we know the character of our God. He had revealed himself in Christ.

Those who don't believe in the personal, loving God we do are left with a dark, foreboding world with uncontrollable forces and where everything and everyone is a threat. When we don't believe there is a good God in control we're left not only in a restless world, with uncertainty and a lack of control, we're also left feeling that all our decisions can have the power to destroy our plans and ruin our life.

As Christians in the midst of restlessness, uncertainty, and when our lack of control becomes evident and our disordered desires lead to disaster we turn to Christ. We look to Jesus who is the same yesterday, today, and forever. We look to the one who formed the stars, who holds every tomorrow, and does the impossible. We find peace as we turn to Christ who may not always give us the peace we wanted in this life, but gives us true peace with God. He may not always make our lives go how we planned them but assures us that He—our good and gracious God—is in control. We're not at the mercy of fate, Karma, or the star signs but at the mercy of a good and loving God.

How different that is from those who are far from Christ longing for peace and security and hope. There's no place they can find the peace and security we find in Christ. All they have to cling to is that the universe will balance out in the end, or the stars align, or that good wins. Or that it's all meaningless. Our plans may not be God's plans. But we have seen from the dawn of creation, through the incarnation and onto Jesus' death and subsequent resurrection in victory that our God is in control and He is good and his plans and his ways may not be our plans and ways, but they are better and higher than our ways.

NYG EXPERIENCE

On Sunday, August 17 during the Bible Class at 9:00 AM the Youth will be sharing about their NYG experience and will be helping with worship that day as a "Thank You" to the congregation for their support! All are welcome to join us to celebrate.

Sponsored by the Hospitality Committee

St. Paul is hosting a Basic LERT (Lutheran Early Response Team) Training on October 25 from 9-3. This LERT Training Event is for obtaining new or renewing/reviewing volunteer certification, enabling volunteers to be received at disaster clean-up sites. This training prepares groups to be on a local team that stands ready to respond when disasters happen, and where victims of storm damage are in need of assistance. If you have any questions, talk with Jeff Weiss.

Thank you

My Friend

What a blessing you have been!
 Standing beside me when I needed support.
 Listening when I had something to share.
 Cheering me on when my spirit struggled.
 Pushing me when I needed to act.
 Giving advice when I really needed it.
 Doing me a favor when I had a problem.
 Going the extra mile when I couldn't do it alone.
 Hugging me when I needed a hug.
 Reminding me to laugh along the way.

You were God's gift to me.

Thank you for being my friend.

Eileen Hayden and Family would like to say "Thank You" to everyone for all the support given to her and the family after the passing of Heinz. For all the Pastor visits, phone calls, text, cards, memorials, flowers etc. It is greatly appreciated.

The Hayden Family would like all of St Paul to know how much each and everyone of you meant to Heinz. The saying next to this note "My Friend" was written by Heinz before he passed away and is for all the members at St. Paul.

Vacant Position on the Board of Directors

The Board has a vacant position of Secretary effective August 19 through June 2026 (Kathryn is moving to St. Joseph, MI). We are looking for a member to serve in this role until our next election, and possibly beyond.

According to our constitution, "the Secretary shall keep full and accurate minutes of all meetings of the Board and Voters' Assembly". For the remainder of 2025, we are scheduled to meet as a board the evenings of August 19, September 16, October 21, November 18, and December 16. We anticipate voters' meetings on September 28, and November 23. You are not required to attend every meeting; just wanted to inform concerning availability.

If you are interested in serving, or would just like more information concerning the role, please contact Scott Rowsell (scott_rowsell@hotmail.com). Thanks!

On a personal note, I would like to thank Kathryn Pitts for her service to St. Paul these past few years especially. Besides being an excellent secretary, Kathryn previously served on a strategic planning committee and our call committees. She will be missed!

Scott Rowsell

Sunday School is Almost Here!

Sunday school resumes on September 7 and we want to see you there! This year we will offer classes for preschool through 5th grade. Middle and high school students are invited to join the adults for Bible study and encouraged to serve in the classrooms once or twice a month. Please register your students using the form in the narthex or email Hannah Swift for a digital copy.

Jeff & Anna Claire Eide
Andrew, Raven & Terrance Kaluf

Interested in Serving on the Sunday School Team?

We are looking for volunteers to serve in our classrooms once or twice a month! All materials will be provided for you. We are looking for lead teachers, assistant teachers, substitute teachers, and music leaders. Please sign up on the sheet in the narthex or contact Hannah Swift if interested. All Sunday School volunteers are asked to attend an informational meeting & lunch after worship on August 17. Please let Hannah know whether or not you can attend.
