Introit for Second Sunday after Pentecost

P: For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation.

C: For God alone, O my soul, wait in silence, for my hope is from him.

P: He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be shaken.

C: On God rests my salvation and my glory; my mighty rock, my refuge is God.

P: Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us.

ALL: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

P: For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation.

Deuteronomy 5:12-15

¹²“Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you. ¹³Six days you shall labor and do all your work, ¹⁴but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, you or your son or your daughter or your male servant or your female servant, or your ox or your donkey or any of your livestock, or the sojourner who is within your gates, that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you. ¹⁵You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.”

2 Corinthians 4:5-12

⁵What we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus’ sake. ⁶For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

⁷But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us. ⁸We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; ⁹persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; ¹⁰always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. ¹¹For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus’ sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. ¹²So death is at work in us, but life in you.

Mark 2:23-28

²³One Sabbath [Jesus] was going through the grainfields, and as they made their way, his disciples began to pluck heads of grain.

²⁴And the Pharisees were saying to him, “Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?” ²⁵And he said to them, “Have you never read what David did, when he was in need and was hungry, he and those who were with him: ²⁶how he entered the house of God, in the time of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and also gave it to those who were with him?” ²⁷And he said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. ²⁸So the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath.”

Psalm 81:1-10

P: Sing aloud to God our strength; shout for joy to the God of Jacob!

C: Raise a song; sound the tambourine, the sweet lyre with the harp.

P: Blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the full moon, on our feast day.

C: For it is a statute for Israel, a rule of the God of Jacob.

P: He made it a decree in Joseph when he went out over the land of Egypt. I hear a language I had not known:

C: “I relieved your shoulder of the burden; your hands were freed from the basket.

P: In distress you called, and I delivered you; I answered you in the secret place of thunder; I tested you at the waters of Meribah.

C: Hear, O my people, while I admonish you! O Israel, if you would but listen to me!

P: There shall be no strange god among you; you shall not bow down to a foreign god.

C: I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
