- P who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,
- C who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,
- P who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- C The LORD works righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed.
- P He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel.
- C The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
- P He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever.
- C He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities.
- P For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;
- C as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

Genesis 50:15-21

¹⁵When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "It may be that Joseph will hate us and pay us back for all the evil that we did to him." ¹⁶So they sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this command before he died, ¹⁷'Say to Joseph, Please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin, because they did evil to you.' And now, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ¹⁸His brothers also came and fell down before him and said, "Behold, we are your servants." ¹⁹But Joseph said to them, "Do not fear, for am I in the place of God? ²⁰As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today. ²¹So do not fear; I will provide for you and your little ones." Thus he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

Romans 14:1-12

¹As for the one who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not to quarrel over opinions. ²One person believes he may eat anything, while the weak person eats only vegetables. ³Let not the one who eats despise the one who abstains, and let not the one who abstains pass judgment on the one who eats, for God has welcomed him. ⁴Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

⁵One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. ⁷For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. ⁸If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. ⁹For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

¹⁰Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God; ¹¹for it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God."

¹²So then each of us will give an account of himself to God.

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

Matthew 18:21-35

²¹Peter came up and said to [Jesus], "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" ²²Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven.

²³"Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. ²⁴When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. ²⁵And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. ²⁶So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' ²⁷And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. ²⁸But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, 'Pay what you owe.' ²⁹So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' ³⁰He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. ³¹When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. ³²Then his master summoned him and said to him, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. ³³And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?’ ³⁴And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. ³⁵So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart.”

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

L In many and various ways, God spoke to His people of old by the prophets.

C But now in these last days, He has spoken to us by His Son.

Sermon

Theme: “Forgiveness, Life & Salvation”

Text: Matthew 18:21-35

Canticle

Benedictus (Congregation part spoken / Cantor part sung)

LSB 238

C Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel;
 He has come to His people and redeemed them.
 He has raised up for us a mighty Savior,
 born of the house of His servant David.
 Through His holy prophets He promised of old
 that He would save us from our enemies,
 from the hands of all who hate us.
 He promised to show mercy to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant.
This was the oath He swore to our father Abraham:
 to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
 free to worship Him without fear,
 holy and righteous in His sight all the days of our life.

L You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High,
 for you will go before the Lord to prepare His way,
 to give His people knowledge of salvation
 by the forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God,
 the dawn from on high shall break upon us
 to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

C Glory be to the Father and to the Son
 and to the Holy Spirit;
 as it was in the beginning, is now,
 and will be forever. Amen.

C hear our prayer.

Collect of the Day

- L Let us pray.
O God, our refuge and strength, the author of all godliness, hear the devout prayers of Your Church, especially in times of persecution, and grant that what we ask in faith we may obtain; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
- C Amen.

Collect for Grace

- L O Lord, our heavenly Father, almighty and everlasting God, You have safely brought us to the beginning of this day. - C Amen.
