St. Paul's Foundation scholarships are open to students enrolled in accredited, post-secondary degree programs as determined by the Foundation Board of Directors. It is hoped that applicants be actively engaged in the life and ministry of St. Paul's Church. Scholarship award winners will be decided by the Board and announced by July 31, 2021.

Limit one award per applicant. This scholarship program is one of equal opportunity.

Some of the information on this form may be considered of a confidential nature and will be treated as such by the Foundation.

If you are awarded a scholarship, it would be appropriate to show appreciation either by writing a thank you note or by speaking to the congregation.
