FIRST READING: ACTS 5:29-42

<sup>29</sup>But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. <sup>30</sup>The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. <sup>31</sup>God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. <sup>32</sup>And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

<sup>33</sup>When they heard this, they were enraged and wanted to kill them. <sup>34</sup>But a Pharisee in the council named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law held in honor by all the people, stood up and gave orders to put the men outside for a little while. <sup>35</sup>And he said to them, "Men of Israel, take care what you are about to do with these men. <sup>36</sup>For before these days Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and a number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was killed, and all who followed him were dispersed and came to nothing.<sup>37</sup> After him Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and drew away some of the people after him. He too perished, and all who followed him were scattered.<sup>38</sup> So in the present case I tell you, keep away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or this undertaking is of man, it will fail;<sup>39</sup> but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You might even be found opposing God!" So they took his advice,<sup>40</sup> and when they had called in the apostles, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.<sup>41</sup> Then they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name.<sup>42</sup> And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

EPISTLE: 1 Peter 1:3-9

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,<sup>4</sup> to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you,<sup>5</sup> who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.<sup>6</sup> In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials,<sup>7</sup> so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.<sup>8</sup> Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory,<sup>9</sup> obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

HOLY GOSPEL: John 20:19-31

<sup>19</sup>On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."<sup>20</sup> When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you."<sup>22</sup> And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.<sup>23</sup> If you forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven; if you withhold forgiveness from anyone, it is withheld."

<sup>24</sup>Now Thomas, one of the Twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came.<sup>25</sup> So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe."

<sup>26</sup>Eight days later, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you."<sup>27</sup> Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe."<sup>28</sup> Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

<sup>30</sup>Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book;<sup>31</sup> but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

Faith Lutheran, Hebron Announcements

Parkview Haven Nursing Home and Meadowlark Heights Assisted Living are running short on some supplies needed to keep their residents safe and healthy. It is becoming increasingly difficult for them to order what they need.

They need: Clorox wipes Antiseptic spray cleaner (such as Lysol, etc.)
Hand sanitizer Safety goggles

Any of these items that could be donated would be very much appreciated. Every bottle helps! We know that these items are in short supply for you and your family as well. If you would be willing to donate any of these items, please drop them off in the coat room at St. Peter. As supplies come in, daily deliveries can be made.

There is also a need for surgical masks that can have a filter inserted. We are asking members that sew if they would be willing to make washable masks out of cotton fabric. By Design/Sew Bee It in Hebron has mask kits that they will hand out for free. The pattern is also available on their website. Call Miranda at 402-365-7237 for more information.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The coronavirus has definitely altered our work. But we are still working. In fact, we have tried to be there for our members who are comfortable receiving us in their homes. We have even restarted our congregation's Facebook page (click here) in order to stream our worship services to our members. In other words, it's a lot like where you are. But all of this cannot take away our Easter joy. We celebrate that Jesus, who was crucified for us, has now risen in triumph and pours for His grace on us all.

We thank you for your gift which keeps us on the field. It is through your support and prayers that the Lord accomplishes anything through us. And we pray that you, too, are kept safe through this stressful time and that you might bear witness to the Lord over all things. A blessed Easter season to you!

We commend you to Christ,

The Grinch Who Tried to Steal Easter -
by New England District LCMS President, Rev. Timothy Yeadon

All the folks on the planet the great and the small
Were struggling to find any meaning at all
To what they were suffering, their loved ones included
They asked if their minds were confused or deluded.

This Easter was unlike all others they'd known
The feasting, the music, had learned a sad tone.
The virus had ruined much more than a day
It crushed all their spirits, their hopes, every way.

And Satan was listening with hoofs in the snow
For sounds of despair that would certainly grow.
"I've taken their joy and I've taken their peace
The wailing I've started will not ever cease.

I've shown my true colors, my hatred and more
 The people I've killed and destroyed by the score.
 I've taken their health – my death toll is so plain
 Why they haven't got room for the bodies I've slain.

I've taken their jobs, all the stores are now closed
 And I'll make it worse, far much worse than supposed.
 Their churches are closed on this grim Easter Day
 (...and just for the record, I like it that way.)

But then there's a sound that I simply must hear
 As men, women, children scream out with a tear
 They'll blame God as always and say, "It was You."
 They'll say, "It was You" as they usually do.

They'll lose all their faith and give into their fright
 There won't be an Easter – just dark, gloomy night
 And then I will tempt them to speak, as did I
 There is no hope left – so just curse God and die."

He stood there with glee at the dawn of the day
 He just couldn't wait for the things all would say.
 He just couldn't wait for the sound he would hear
 "Get on with it, Faithless" he said with a sneer.

But as Easter dawned the first thing that he heard
 Was music played softly with soft-spoken word.
 And then as he stood mouth agape to the floor
 Satan heard words that had crushed him before.

"Jesus Christ is ris'n today. Alleluia!
 Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
 Who did once upon the cross. Alleluia!
 Suffered to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!
 Praise eternal as His love; Alleluia!
 Praise Him, all ye heav'nly host, Alleluia!
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!"

Satan stood puzzling til his puzzler was sore.
 He stood there quite frightened; he shook to the core.
 He hadn't stopped Easter from coming. It came!
 Somehow or other it came just the same.

"They're singing! Without any Church or a Feast
 They're singing! From greatest right down to the least
 They're singing in living rooms, kitchens, and dens
 Despite all my hate – I say, this makes no sense!"

The light of the Lord made him run, kick and fall
 The Lord is still living and stands with us all.
 He still stands among us He never will leave
 He'll never depart though we wonder and grieve.

The Lord's in control – the battle He's won.
 He rose up victorious and shines like the sun.
 He shines in our heart with His comforting love
 He guides us to heaven and things up above

Happy Easter to all -- the day is still real
 For Jesus is ris'n and let the bells peal
 Though darkness surrounds us; for now it seems night
 But morning does break in today's Easter light!

*O fill us, Lord, with dauntless love;
 Set heart and will on things above
 That we conquer through Your triumph;
 Grant grace sufficient for life's day
 That by our lives we truly say:
 "Christ has triumphed! He is living!"
 Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!*
