

W/ELCA Fall Gathering

Thursday, October 10, 2019

Trinity Fellowship Hall

6:00 p.m.– 9:00 p.m.

Ruth Circle will be the host for this event. Mr. Dean Hovey, a Minnesota Author will be the speaker. Save the date, and invite a friend.

Biography: Dean Hovey is the award-winning author of Family Trees: A Pine County Mystery. His Pine County and Whistling Pines books are set in rural Northeastern Minnesota communities and tap into local history, politics, and current events. The Pine County Mystery series features Floyd Swenson, a seasoned investigator, who methodically works through clues and information to track down the bad guys. The Whistling Pines Series are cozies set in a senior citizen's residence, featuring Peter Rogers, the recreation director, as the protagonist. In 2019 Dean added the Doug Fletcher series with Stolen Past, set in Northern Arizona. This series features Doug, a retired St. Paul detective, who was drafted by the US Park Service to investigate the murder of a visitor at Walnut Canyon National Monument.

Gather– Bible Study

Two Circles at Trinity are using the Gather Bible Study. This Fall we have three lessons titled, “Poetry of the Old Testament” September was a lesson about Anger. October we will study Grief and in November the study will be about Joy. The winter of 2020, we will have four lessons on Vocation and Calling. If you are interested in joining us call the church office for more information.

Blanket Ministry:

We will be making blankets at church on Friday, October 4 from 9:00 a.m.—noon. Bring your own scissors and join us for the morning. No experience is necessary. We are making blankets for our coat drive in October. Plus for our members and future needs. Making blankets is a team effort. The coffee pot will be on, so plan to join us for a fun morning.

Future Dates:

- W/ELCA Spring Convention will be April 25th, 2020. First time it will be just one day. Details will follow in the new year.
