

The Holy Gospel

Luke 11:1-13

Jesus teaches His disciples how to pray, and to be confident that our Father in heaven will hear us and give us what is truly best for our lives.

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the eleventh chapter.

C: Glory to You, O Lord.

¹Now Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.” ²And he said to them, “When you pray, say:

“Father, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come.

³Give us each day our daily bread,

⁴and forgive us our sins,

for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us.

And lead us not into temptation.”

⁵And he said to them, “Which of you who has a friend will go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves, ⁶for a friend of mine has arrived on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him’; ⁷and he will answer from within, ‘Do not bother me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I cannot get up and give you anything’? ⁸I tell you, though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his impudence he will rise and give him whatever he needs. ⁹And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. ¹⁰For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. ¹¹What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; ¹²or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? ¹³If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!

P: This is the Gospel of our Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.

Opening Psalm

P: I give You thanks O LORD, with my whole heart

C: before the gods I sing Your praise

P: I bow down toward Your holy temple and give thanks to Your name for your steadfast love and faithfulness

C: for You have exalted above all things Your name and Your word.

P: On the day I called You answered me

C: My strength of soul You increased.

P: All the kings of the earth shall give You thanks O LORD

C: for they have heard the words of Your mouth.

P: and they sing of the ways of the LORD

C: for great is the glory of the LORD

P: For though the LORD is high; He regards the lowly.

C: but the haughty He knows from afar.

P: Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You preserve my life

C: You stretch out Your hand against the wrath of my enemies and Your right hand delivers me

P: The LORD will fulfill His purpose for me

C: Your steadfast love, O LORD, endures forever. Do not forsake the work of Your hands.

All: Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen..

Collect of the Day

P: Let us pray...Grant LORD, that the course of this world may be so governed by Your direction that Your church may rejoice in serving You in godly peace and quietness; through Jesus Christ, our LORD, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen

Old Testament Reading

After the death of Jacob, Joseph’s brothers were afraid that he would lash out in anger towards them. However, because of the faith God had given him, continued to assure his brothers of his forgiveness.

R: The Old Testament Reading is from the Book of Genesis, the fiftieth chapter:

¹⁵When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, “It may be that Joseph will hate us and pay us back for all the evil that we did to him.” ¹⁶So they sent a message to Joseph, saying, “Your father gave this command before he died: ¹⁷‘Say to Joseph, “Please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin, because they did evil to you.” And now, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father.” Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ¹⁸His brothers also came and fell down before him and said, “Behold, we are your servants.” ¹⁹But Joseph said to them, “Do not fear, for am I in the place of God? ²⁰As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today. ²¹So do not fear; I will provide for you and your little ones.” Thus he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

Psalm 138

R: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Epistle

By faith Joseph desired that his earthly remains be taken back to the Promised Land. And in the book of Ephesians, the Apostle Paul instructs us to be kind to one another, tenderhearted, and forgiving.

R: The Epistle Reading is from Hebrews, the eleventh chapter and Ephesians, the fourth chapter:

²²By faith Joseph, at the end of his life, made mention of the exodus of the Israelites and gave directions concerning his bones.

²⁵Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. ²⁶Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, ²⁷and give no opportunity to the devil. ²⁸Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. ²⁹Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. ³⁰And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. ³¹Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. ³²Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

R: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.
