Kids Sunday School is on a break for summer, but if your kids still want to come, Alica will be doing craft time during the Sunday School hour.

Today's service will lead by Rev. Luke Schnake while Pastor Watt, Kourtnie, Ruby Oetjen, Kyle, and Brecken Kollmorgen attend the youth gathering in New Orleans.

Once upon a pew: When my boys were little, if one of our goldfish died, we would have a little funeral, say the Lord's Prayer, and flush the fish down the toilet. As my boys grew up and had their own families, they carried on the same tradition.

While attending the funeral of my granddaughter's other grandmother, while barely old enough to talk, she said, you guessed it, "Are we gonna flush her?" ~Molle Gergen, NE

~ At our church, children walk to the altar and make their contribution. On this particular Sunday, we had a visiting pastor. When my grandson didn't return in his usual time, I asked him, "What too so long?" He answered, "The new pastor was flipping some of the kids double-or-nothing, and it was taking longer." ~Gerald Voy, NE
