TRINITY EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH BERRIEN SPRINGS, MICHIGAN

PREAMBLE

Whereas, Christians should practice fellowship with those who profess the true faith (Acts 2:42; Hebrews 10:24, 24); and

Whereas, they should endeavor to keep the unity of faith (Ephesians 4:3-6; I Corinthians 1:10); and

Whereas, as a body they should administer the Office of the Keys (John 20:21-23; Matthew 18:15-20); and

Whereas, in such a body all things should be done decently and in order (I Corinthians 14:40); and

Whereas, our original Constitution was framed in the German language:

Therefore, we the congregation have considered it advisable to update, and where feasible, to alter and improve our Constitution in such a manner that nothing of importance be omitted, and we therefore adopt the following Constitution and its By-Laws according to which all affairs of this congregation, both spiritual and material, shall be conducted.

CONSTITUTION

Constitution, Article I  NAME

The name of this church shall be "Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church", of Berrien Springs, Berrien County, Michigan.

Constitution, Article II MISSION

The purpose of this congregation shall be to give honor and glory to the Triune God, to carry out His will, to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ as God and Savior, to foster Christian fellowship and love, to extend a helping hand to human need, and to achieve its objectives by the preaching of the Word of God, by the administration of the sacraments, and by the religious instruction of all its members according to the confessional standard of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Constitution, Article III

CONFESSIONAL STANDARD

The congregation acknowledges and accepts all the canonical books of the Old and New Testaments as the revealed Word of God, verbally inspired, and acknowledges and accepts all the Symbolical Books of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, contained in the Book of Concord of 1580, to be true and genuine expositions of the doctrines of the Bible.

These Symbolical Books are: the three Ecumenical Creeds \{Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian\}, the Unaltered Augsburg Confession, the Apology of the same, the Smalcald Articles, Luther's Large and Small Catechisms, and the Formula of Concord.

Constitution, Article IV SYNODICAL MEMBERSHIP

The congregation shall hold membership in the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod as long as the Synod conforms to the Congregation's Confessional Standards \{Constitution, Article III\} as set forth in this constitution.

Constitution, Article V MEMBERSHIP

The membership of this congregation includes the following:

- Baptized members are all who have been baptized in the name of the Triune God and who are under the spiritual care of the pastor of this congregation, including the children who have not yet been confirmed into communicant membership.
- Communicant members are those baptized members who have been instructed and are familiar with the contents of Luther's Small Catechism, having been confirmed in the Lutheran faith, and adhere in confession and practice to the Confessional Standards \{Constitution, Article III\} set forth in this constitution.
- Voting members are communicant members who are at least eighteen (18) years of age and who received Confirmation/Adult Confirmation and are recorded by current means as members of this congregation shall have the right to vote.

Members of this congregation are received in the following manner:

- Baptized members are received through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism or through the consent of one or both parents in the case of children who have been baptized in another Christian congregation.
- Adult members are received through the rite of confirmation and Sacrament of Holy Baptism as appropriate, through transfer from a sister congregation; By-Laws, Article One \{Admission of New Members \}, or through profession of faith or reaffirmation of faith; By-Laws, Article One \{Admission of New Members \}.
- Only members who are at least eighteen (18) years of age and who received Confirmation/Adult Confirmation and are recorded by current means as members of this congregation shall have the right to vote.

Members of this congregation shall conform their entire lives to the authority of God's Word and to that end shall make diligent use of the means of grace, exercise faithful stewardship of God's many gifts and talents, impart and accept fraternal admonition as the need of such admonition becomes apparent, and be readily available for service in the kingdom of Christ within and beyond the congregation.

- Membership in organizations whose principles and conduct conflict with the Word of God is prohibited.

Termination of membership of this congregation:

- Membership shall be terminated by transfer to a sister congregation, by joining a congregation outside the fellowship of this congregation, by excommunication or selfexclusion, or by death.
- Communicant members who conduct themselves in an un-Christian manner shall be admonished according to Matthew 18:15.20 and so stated in detail in the By-Laws, Article Three \{Membership Revocation\}.

Constitution, Article VI RIGHTS OF SUFFRAGE AND ELIGIBILITY TO HOLD OFFICE

Only such members who are at least twenty-one (21) years of age shall be eligible to hold office. In keeping with the order of Creation, only such male members who have reached the age of twenty-one (21) shall serve as an Elder, President and Vice-President of the congregation.

And be it further resolved that all male pronouns, except in reference to the Board of Elders members, President and Vice-President of the congregation, be understood as applying to both genders.

Constitution, Article VII OFFICERS

The officers of this congregation shall be President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers of the boards and committees as the Constitution and By-Laws of this congregation may prescribe or as this congregation may elect in accordance with its needs.

- It shall be the duty of each Officer to maintain in a Christian manner their elected office.
- The congregation possesses the power to remove, in a Christian manner, from office any officer of the congregation who willfully neglects the duties of their office; By-Laws, Article Nine \{Duties of Office\}.
- A two-thirds majority vote of the voters' assembly shall be required.

Constitution, Article VIII SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH

It shall be the duty of every member of this congregation to contribute financially according to his or her ability toward the maintenance and growth of the church and school, and in general, to assist in bearing the financial obligations of the congregation.

Constitution, Article IX CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND TRAINING

It shall be the duty of such members of this congregation who have parental care of unconfirmed children to provide for their Christian education and training.

Constitution, Article X

PASTORS AND TEACHERS
The pastoral office shall be conferred only upon ordained ministers who are members of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, candidates for the pastoral ministry who have satisfied the qualifications and requirements for assignment of first calls by Synod, or ordained ministers who are members in good standing of church bodies that have been formally recognized to be in altar and pulpit fellowship with the Synod when agreements for such calls are in place.

Only those commissioned ministers shall receive a call who are qualified for the work of the ministry to which they are called, and have been endorsed by and are members of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, who are candidates of LCMS colleges and universities who have satisfied the qualifications and requirements for assignment of first calls, and who are commissioned ministers in good standing from church bodies that are in alter and pulpit fellowship with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

Only such ordained ministers, commissioned ministers or teachers shall be called by this congregation as are in accord with the Confessional Standard of this congregation \{Constitution, Article III\}.

- The right of calling ordained ministers, commissioned ministers or teachers shall never be delegated to a smaller body or to an individual.
- Reasons for dismissing a pastor or teacher shall be persistent adherence to false teaching, and scandalous life, willful neglect of the duties of office, the inability to perform those duties, or domineering in office.
- For the election of pastors and teachers, a majority vote of the voters' assembly is required.
- For dismissal of a pastor or teacher a two-thirds vote of the voters' assembly is required.

When a vacancy occurs in an office of an ordained minister, commissioned minister or teacher the appropriate call committee listed in the By-Laws \{Call Committee\} shall notify the president of the district to receive assistance in temporarily filling the vacancy and to receive his counsel in calling a new pastor, teacher or other church worker.
Be it understood that by virtue of his call, Pastor is an ex-officio member of all Boards and Committees of this congregation (Acts 20:28).

Constitution, Article XI  INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the congregation shall indemnify any individual who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any proceeding other than a proceeding by or in the right of the congregation, because he or she was or is a called employee, officer, or board member of the congregation, or because of any action or inaction in such capacity, against liability and expenses incurred in the proceeding, if:

- He or she conducted himself or herself in good faith.
- He or she reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity, that his or her conduct was in the best interests of the congregation, and (ii) in all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the congregation.
- In the case of any criminal proceeding, that he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Constitution, Article XII AUTHORITY OF AND WITHIN THE CONGREGATION

The voters' assembly shall be the governing body of this congregation and shall be empowered to delegate, administer or manage all its affairs.

- The establishment and conduct of all boards, committees and societies within the congregation or organizations related directly to the congregation shall be subject to the overall authority and general oversight of the voters' assembly.
- All matters before the voters' assembly shall be decided by a majority vote unless otherwise specified by this Constitution or By-Laws.
- Matters of doctrine and conscience shall be decided only on the basis of the Word of God.

Constitution, Article XIII PROPERTY RIGHTS OF THE CONGREGATION

The congregation may receive, acquire, hold title to, and manage such real estate and other property as it may need to accomplish its purpose \{Constitution, Article II\} and may sell or dispose of such real estate and other property or any part thereof; the congregation shall have all rights and powers that are granted by the laws of the State of Michigan to religious organizations.

Constitution, Article XIV DIVISION

If at any time division of the congregation should take place for any reason (which God may graciously prevent) the following principles will govern.

- The property (or any part thereof) of the congregation and all benefits connected therewith shall remain with those communicant members who continue to adhere in confession and practice to the Confessional Standards \{Constitution, Article III\} set forth in this constitution.
- In the event that the congregation dissolves, all property (or any part thereof) shall be disposed of by the final voters assemble for payment of debts and all just claims against the congregation, and any and all surplus and all rights connected therewith shall be conveyed to and become the property of the Michigan District of the Lutheran ChurchMissouri Synod.

Constitution, Article XV BOOKS AND FORMS

In all public services of the congregation, in all ministerial acts, and in all religious instruction of the church and school, only such books, music and materials shall be used which are in accord with the Confessional Standards \{Constitution, Article III $\}$ of the congregation.

Constitution, Article XVI  MARRIAGE POLICY

The marriage policy of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, a member congregation of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, is and always has been consistent with the Synod's beliefs on marriage. We believe that marriage is a sacred union of one man and one woman (Gen. 2:2425), and that God gave marriage as a picture of the relationship between Christ and His bride the Church (Eph. 5:32). The official position of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, as set forth in 1998 Res. 3-21 ("To Affirm the Sanctity of Marriage and to Reject Same-Sex Unions"), is that homosexual unions come under categorical prohibition in the Old and New Testaments (Lev. $18: 22,24 ; 20: 13$; 1 Cor. 6:9-10; 1 Tim. 1:9-10) as contrary to the Creator's design (Rom. 1:2627). These positions and beliefs can be found on the LCMS website, along with other statements, papers and reports on the subject of homosexuality and same-sex civil unions and "marriage". Our pastors will not officiate over any marriages inconsistent with these beliefs, and our church property may not be used for any marriage ceremony, reception or other activity that would be inconsistent with our beliefs and this policy.
(Concerning marriage or the institution of the Marriage Policy the Elders of the congregation shall have authority.)

Constitution, Article XVII  AMENDMENTS

Amendments to this Constitution or By-Laws may be proposed in the following manner; amendments to any article of this Constitution may be submitted in writing to the Church Council, the Church Council shall post an agenda, containing the proposed amendment, offering a two-week notice before a regular meeting of the voters' assembly. The proposed amendment placed before the congregation may be considered, amended, or rejected by a majority vote. If the majority vote is affirmative towards the proposed or amended amendment no final action thereon can be taken until the following regular meeting. At the following regular meeting this proposed amendment may be amended or voted upon. In order to be adopted the final draft of the amendment must be accepted by at least two-thirds of those present in order to become effective.

- Amendments to Articles II, III, V, IX, X, XII, XV, XVI and XVII shall not destroy their essential meaning.
- The date of approval shall be referenced next to any amendment that is added to the Constitution or the By-Laws.
- The revision of the Constitution or By-Laws containing the amendment(s) must be submitted to the Michigan District Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod constitution committee for review and recommendations.

Constitution, Article XVII

ADOPTION OF BY-LAWS

This congregation may adopt such By-Laws as the accomplishment of the purpose of its organization may demand.

BY-LAWS

By-Laws, Article One ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

Applicants for communicant membership presenting a letter of transfer from a recognized Lutheran congregation shall be accepted as communicant members. Applicants for communicant membership not affiliated with a recognized orthodox Lutheran Church shall give satisfactory evidence of their qualification for membership in an interview with the Pastor and the Elders. If necessary they may be required to receive an adequate course of instruction in the Chief Parts of Christian Doctrine. Having declared in the presence of the congregation their acceptance of the doctrines of the Lutheran Church, they shall be received as communicant members.

The Pastor shall announce the reception of communicant members to the congregation.

By-Laws, Article Two RELEASE AND WITHDRAWAL

Members desiring a release for the purpose of joining a sister congregation shall obtain a written dismissal or recommendation from the Pastor, who in turn, shall report the same to the congregation. Members who have severed their connection with the congregation without obtaining a release shall, after a period of two years, be stricken from the membership list following due-investigation by Elders and consideration by the voters' assembly.

By-Laws, Article Three MEMBERSHIP REVOCATION

Loving and sincere admonitions/counsel shall be given through fellow members, the Boards of Elders and/or Pastor (guided by Matthew 18:15-20) when any or all of the following occur:
a) A member of this congregation has not attended divine worship services
b) Has not partaken of the Sacrament of the Altar for a period of two (2) consecutive years
c) Manifestly refuses or fails to heed repeated loving, sincere admonitions/counsel

The Board of Elders shall recommend, to the voting members at the next congregational meeting, that the errant member be revoked membership resulting in excommunication.

August 23, 2016
No recommendation to revoke membership shall be made prior to personal contacts with the delinquent member by a member of the Board of Elders accompanied by Pastor, giving notice of the pending membership revocation. If personal contact cannot be made after diligent effort, a certified letter or notification shall be sent to the last known address, not less than thirty days prior to the pending date of membership revocation.

Any person whose membership has been revoked pursuant to \{By-Laws, Article Three\} shall be declared to have forfeited all rights and claims whatsoever against the congregation which were formally held and enjoyed by virtue of membership.

The same forfeiture of membership rights applies to those members who abandon an active association with the Church, refuse to adhere to this congregation's Constitution and By-laws, and by doing so exclude themselves.

By-Laws, Article Four  MEETINGS

The regular meetings of the voters' assembly shall be four (4) in number each fiscal year, the fiscal year being September 1 through August 31. The meetings are to be held in November, February, May (includes Elections) and August. Church Council shall post an agenda offering a two-week notice before regular voters' meetings. The Board of Elders, Church Council, the President, and the Pastor may call special meetings following a posted agenda offering a twoweek notice to the congregation. (Revised June 11, 2023 by $2 / 3$ vote)

The voting members present at a regular or at any duly called special meeting shall constitute a quorum.

It shall be the right of every voting member, if possible, to attend all the meetings of the voters' assembly. Failing to attend a meeting, a member waives the right of casting a vote, but acquiesces in the voters' assembly proceedings, findings, and decisions.

In all meetings of the congregation the majority of votes cast shall decide all questions. Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation, the Constitution, and the By-Laws shall require a two-thirds majority of the votes cast. In matters of doctrine and conscience, congregational concord shall be required for a valid decision.

By-Laws, Article Five BOARDS

All Boards to be represented on Church Council shall, at the beginning of the fiscal year after elections, nominate and elect a chairman who will officiate and represent that Board as Chairman. (see \{By-Laws, Article Eight\} "Church Council" for the list of representatives)

The Board of Elders, Board of Trustees, Board of Stewardship, Board of Christian Discipleship, Board of Finance, and the Christian School Board are required to create and/or maintain a policy and procedure handbook related to the workings of their Board, any proposed changes to the Board's corresponding handbook must be submitted to the Council for review.
