A LIFE QUOTE FROM LUTHERANS FOR LIFE

“The culture of life respects human life at all its stages, recognizing that those who have lived long and well have much to offer those who are just beginning their journeys on this earth. Not only should the young respect the aging, but the elderly should also respect themselves with the honor God says is due them. If Grandpa is too weak to work, he is not too weak to pray. Let us cherish our parents and grandparents as they intercede on our behalf and pass down to their children’s children the wisdom of the Lord.” Ryan C. MacPherson, Professor at Bethany Lutheran College, Mankato, Minnesota

HOLY LAND PRESENTATION

Please join us on Thursday evening, September 20 at 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall to hear a presentation by the congregation members who traveled to the Holy Land in April. Listen as they relate the enlightening experiences they had the inspiring things they saw. They have promised that their presentation will be much better than sitting through a slideshow of your in-laws' vacation photos.

MEANINGFUL MUSINGS

Matthew 6:24 – “... You cannot serve God and money.” In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus gives the first and last word about our stewardship – well, you have to go back a few verses to verse 21 to get the whole thing: “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” Read Matthew 5:19-34 this week at home and consider your generosity to the Lord’s work in light of what Jesus says.

A Bible Study on Masculinity and Strength

Sunday, September 30

For MEN of all ages

Inquisitive boys welcome too!

Come explore these questions and get to the heart of what it means that Jesus is a man in another men's Bible study with Rev. Jeff Hemmer, pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church in Fairview Heights, IL and the author of Man Up: The Quest for Masculinity.
