Learning to Pray

Psalm 13 is a wonderful Psalm for it opens our eyes in demonstrating how we are to pray. Too often, God's children think they need to pray harder, because things are not going well. Or, they think they need to pray in just the right way and with just the right words. "Maybe if I kneel by my bedside and use the King James thee and thou and throw in a few th's at the end of words (maketh, helpeth, showeth), the Lord will listen." But our Lord is not a tyrant. He does not play games. He is our Father and we, in Christ, are His dear children.

Notice the first four verses of Psalm 13:

*How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
How long must I take counsel in my soul
and have sorrow in my heart all the day?
How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?
Consider and answer me, O LORD my God;
light up my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death,
lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him,"
lest my foes rejoice because I am shaken.*

*How long,
O Lord?*

David doesn't try to use the right words. In fact, he questions God. "How long? Will you forget?" Sorrow is in his heart. The sleep of death may be near, and his enemies are prevailing against him.

This prayer is not trying to protect God as if He were some puny idol. Idols are lifeless and cannot defend themselves, so their followers have to defend them. No, the Lord is the living God, and He has big enough shoulders to hear our prayers with all the true pains and questions that may come with them.

The first four verses are shaped by the happenings of this world. The world shapes the necessity and content of this prayer. The pressures are closing in, so David cries out with his questions. He is not able to understand. How many of us have been in that same situation with everything closing in on us?

Now notice the last two verses of Psalm 13:

*But I have trusted in your steadfast love;
my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.
I will sing to the LORD,
because he has dealt bountifully with me.*

I will sing to the LORD,
because he has dealt
BOUNTIFULLY
with me.
Psalm 13:6

It would seem David has a split personality, for now he speaks of trust, love, rejoicing and singing. How can David's prayer go from pain to joy, from doubt to certainty, and from death to life? The Lord and His Word!

The last two verses are shaped by God's Words and promises. The world says one thing, but God's Word shows the reality. We've seen this before. The world says it is only water, but God's Word tells us it is Baptism and we are rescued from sin, death, and the devil. The world says it is only bread and wine, but God's Word says it is our Savior's body and blood given for you. The world says you have little worth unless you have power and money, and God's Word says that you are His by the blood of His Son.

David did not end his prayer with questions, but with words shaped by the Word of God. Yes, these things may be happening to us or to our loved ones, but we remain His.

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 8:37-39).

CONGREGATION-WIDE ROUNDTABLE FEBRUARY 24

The Planning Committee (Chris Cott, Louis Eggerding, John Frerking, Carolyn Holste, Chris Kespohl, Annette Kiehne, and Fred Pistel) have been meeting to update the Trinity long-term plans. We have been using the survey results compiled by the Elders as part of the basis for our work and would like to gather more information from the congregation about what you see as the important needs. To that end, we are holding a roundtable discussion event on February 24 to consider the following areas (in no priority order):

- Facility rehab
- General open discussion
- New facilities
- Outreach and growth
- Staffing (facilitated by the Elders)
- Worship
- Youth and Christian Education

Rev. Mark Frith from the Lutheran Church Extension Fund will introduce the process and help to facilitate the event.

We expect the event to last from 3:00-5:00 p.m., and will include beverages and snacks. We also intend to provide child care. We will provide more information closer to the event, but feel free to contact one or more of the committee members listed above with any questions.

YOUTH GROUP SHOE DRIVE

As one of their fundraisers for the National Youth Gathering next summer, the Youth Group is collecting like-new to gently-used shoes. All styles of shoes are welcome from flip-flops and baby shoes to cowboy boots and dress shoes. Please put your shoes in the big red shoe in the hallway. Our goal is to collect 3,000 pairs. Thanks for your help!

If you would like more info or would like to place a collection box for us, please contact Chris Bailey at (573) 639-0727 or VANITY411@yahoo.com.

TREASURER'S REPORT - Warren Harms & Jim Harms (Treasurer)

For the month ending December 3, 2018, the Church income is $69,345 and year to date income is $591,911 (97.07% of the total income budgeted for the year). This is <$42,029> or <6.6%> less than in 2017. For 2018, the income from Utility Reimbursement from the Learning Center is $10,000 less than in 2017 per the budget.

The Reimbursement from Good Shepherd Lutheran School is down by $25,232 due to the school's closing. The 301-Regular Envelope is down <$15,136> or <2.9%> less than at the end of 2018.

The total Learning Center income for December is $58,050 and $722,165 for the year to date (106.53% of the budgeted income for the year).

For the month of December, Church expenditures are $63,092, and $509,665 year to date (83.6% of the annual expense budget of $609,775). "Extra" December expenses included bonuses approved at the December AOV meeting for the Pastor and Church Secretary, contribution envelopes for 2019, the custodian expense for October, and sometime earlier in the year I failed to send the monthly $2,500 contribution to Synod & District Missions. Other increased expenses in 2018 for the church included sending $14,300 to LCMS Missions for 10% of the 2017 Surplus and expensing $14,000 for 10% of the 2018 Surplus. Future years should record an expense of only 10% for that current year surplus.

Year to date expenses are down from expected budget due to the Senior Pastor compensation being lower than budgeted and also the Good Shepherd Lutheran School support was only paid out for 6 months.

The Learning Center expenditures for December total $87,163 and $677,068 year to date which is 99.88% of the annual expense budget of $677,900. "Extra" December expenses include year-end bonuses paid to staff and the bathroom project was completed and expensed in account 741.5. This $29,826 was approved at the May AOV meeting to be paid out of the 2017 surplus cash.

The report of designated gifts includes a $30,000 contribution for the general endowment fund that will be sent to that fund at LCMS Foundation in January 2019. Total reserve accounts at Lutheran Church Extension Fund are now $207,932 and there is currently no building loan on the books.

Angel Arnall moved to approve the Treasurer's Report; seconded and approved.

OLD BUSINESS:

INTRODUCING MARTIN THE MOUSE

Hi! I'm Martin the Church Mouse! I spend my days running around Trinity*, and I see a lot of things other people never would. I'd like to recognize some of the people I've seen working hard behind the scenes here at Trinity. For instance, just last week I saw Phil Glenn come in and fix the outside spotlights so our bell tower is once again illuminated at night. Luckily, all it took was new, special light bulbs. Over the past several weeks, I've also seen Debbie Antel and Mary Riggert spend hours cleaning out and reorganizing the big storage area in the back of the church. Thank you Mary and Debbie for your work and dedication!

*I usually stay out of the Child Learning Center. I wouldn't want to scare the teachers or be a health code violation.

A new home means new ingredients to experiment with in my most favorite of labs, the kitchen. Plantains abound here and can be used while firm and still green or maduro and mottled with brown spots. Numerous guests and I have enjoyed their sweet and savory versatility in these recipes:

1. Plantain & Olive Beef Bowls
2. Chicken & Plantain Curry
3. Flourless Pumpkin Chia Seed Blondies
4. Vegetable & Plantain Moqueca

And finally, no list would be complete without the iconic...

5. Tostones!

(1) through (4) can be found on my TRIED IT! Pinterest board. Tostones are simply thickly sliced green plantains fried, smashed, and fried again.

100% in my element!

(If you received a hard copy of this and would like to help me be green and save on postage, please send an email to erin.mackenzie@lcmsintl.org.)

Notes from a Not-so-Crazy Cat Lady

I'm not sure whom I was more excited to see: my sister ... or my cat, Freddy, whose arrival to the mission field was heralded by a recent visit from family. I've so missed the jingling of the bell on his collar; his arrival in the kitchen whenever I open a can of tuna; his purring as I drift off to sleep. But Freddy is more than just a companion. What can my gato teach me about God?

1. He delights in providing for His creatures. Sharing my home with another being that depends on me brings me unbridled joy. The Creator likewise loves to care for His creation. What sweet consolation it is to feed my cat and remember that the Heavenly Father relishes in bestowing upon His children all that we need.

2. He is faithful, even toward the ungrateful. How quickly we forget, though! Even as I stoop to unroll the top of the Friskies bag, Freddy cries out in apparent starvation. Think about the Israelites. Still basking in the parting of the Red Sea, they began to grumble. All too often, I bellyache about the teeniest of hardships. We have a God who gave up His only Son. How will He not also grant us whatever we need to persevere in the tasks He sets before us?

3. He pours out His love without restraint. Come what may, Freddy is there. The love of God is likewise and more so. There are few more soothing words than: "while we were still sinners, Christ died for us," (Romans 5:8).

I own one cat pillow. I hope that doesn't make me a crazy cat lady. What's crazy is the wildly counterintuitive character of the God we worship. My family left after two weeks. Freddy's in it for the long haul, though, and I marvel every day at my four-legged reminder of God's providence, faithfulness, and love.

*Adapted from my third Lutheran Witness blog posts, slated to go live later this month.

Praises and Petitions

1. Thanksgiving for the first LAC short-term team of 2019, who returned home safely after serving in Peru earlier this month.
2. Thanksgiving for the return of Rev. James & Deac. Christel Neuendorf to the mission field. Upon completing on-field orientation in the DR, they'll deploy to Puerto Rico on 2/25.
3. For the faculty of Seminario Concordia el Reformador, traveling home from Symposia in Ft. Wayne, IN.
4. For Eddy, Cerro Alto's resident electrician, who fell from a roof and broke both his legs. Impending surgery will put him out of work for 8 weeks.
5. For Jenny and Amanda, missionary wives expecting children in February and May, respectively.
6. For all affected by the winter weather that has buried much of the United States, especially the homeless, those who travel, and those who work outdoors to keep others safe and warm.

Colmado Culture

Seeing things through the eyes of visitors, as I have multiple times this month, sheds light on cultural idiosyncrasies that have become my new normal. Take colmados, for instance, small grocery stores that are located on seemingly every street corner.

The root word, "colmar," is a transitive verb meaning to fulfill, satisfy, meet, shower, or deluge. It occurs in the Bible in the Spanish translation (NVI) of Psalm 91:16: "With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation."

Botellones of drinking water, which cost 40 pesos ($0.79) each, are a colmado staple. All you have to do is call (and sometimes call again...and again...), and a driver on a moto will bring them right to your doorstep. I've seen a single driver loaded down with as many as 5. In fact, colmados will deliver anything: pineapples, Doritos, beer, ketchup, and even popsicles. "Colmado!"

Left: I bet your Epiphany service didn't include "We Three Kings" on accordion!
 Center: My new office? Shoutout to my parents and sister for installing the hook and my friend Katherine for the carabiners.
 Right: "We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters in to the inner place behind the curtain," (Hebrews 6:19).

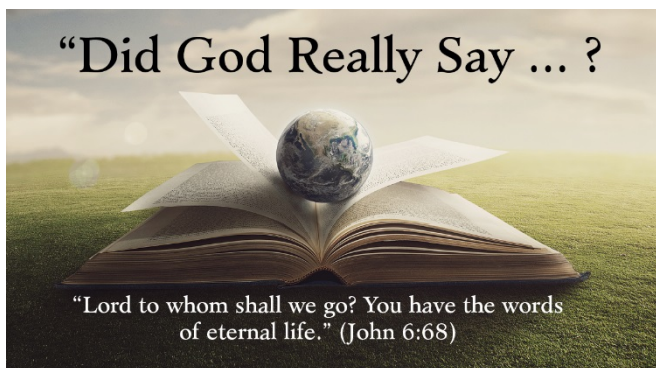

Quote of the Month!

"There is little that makes a volunteer feel more valued than a timely, well-managed, well-executed plan—all driven by a redemptive purpose."
