

News of the Son

Trinity Lutheran Church — Columbia, MO

August
2020

On July 12, in the year of our Lord 2020, Joseph McCalley was ordained and installed here at Trinity Lutheran Church, Columbia, Missouri. After the Invocation in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, came these words:

Beloved in the Lord, Joseph Matthew McCalley has been called by the Lord of the Church into the Office of the Holy Ministry of the Word and Sacraments. He has been prepared for this ministry by careful study and prayer. He has been examined and declared ready and prepared to undertake this sacred responsibility, and, by the guidance of God the Holy Spirit, he has in the Church's usual order been called to be pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in Columbia, Missouri. According to apostolic practice, he is now presented to be ordained and consecrated to this office established by God.

This is the first ordination and installation our congregation at Trinity has had in 27 years. Some people have been to other ordinations, and for others this is the first time. The Lord, on the other hand, has been calling men to serve in His Church for the past 2,000 years.

Bible verse after Bible verse after Bible verse were read during the service. The reason for so many biblical quotes is so that everyone would know Ordination is from the Lord, and it is not some human institution. It is the Lord's gift to and for His Church here on Earth.

Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Matthew 28:18-20 NKJV

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." John 20:21-23 NKJV

When a man is ordained as a Pastor, he is not to work willy-nilly. Our Savior gives him specific responsibilities he is to carry out on behalf of the Lord. "For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you ..." (1 Corinthians 11:23). Twelve verses can be read about the responsibility of a Pastor. In those verses we hear of forgiving and retaining sins, being stewards of the mysteries of God, reconciliation, watching over the flock, and so much more. The new pastor is to deliver the Word and Sacraments of God to God's people.

As a man stands before God and the people of God, he vows to uphold the Gospel and faithfully teach and proclaim it. Then the presiding minister lays both his hands on the head of the candidate and speaks the Word of God from John 20:21-23. He ordains and consecrates this servant to the Office of the Holy Ministry.

During the Installation portion of the Service, the congregation speaks their vows to uphold the shepherd and teacher placed over them by our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Lord has brought together His people at Trinity Lutheran Church in Columbia, Missouri with the newly ordained and installed Rev. Joseph Matthew McCalley, so we rejoice in the gifts we are given. We rejoice in the proclamation of the Gospel. We rejoice in the administration of Holy Absolution, Holy Baptism, and the Holy Supper. And we rejoice in one another.

Welcome, Pastor McCalley.

Your Servant in Christ,

Rev. Brian K. Thieme

IN-PERSON WORSHIP SERVICES AND EVENTS

Trinity is holding in-person worship services and on-site events. However, the COVID-19 pandemic requires several modifications to the way we meet for worship. Based on the most recent orders from the City of Columbia, we are observing the following practices:

✝ We are following strict social distancing guidelines. Households are encouraged to sit together, but groups must sit at least six feet from the nearest group with vacant pews both in front of and behind each occupied pew. Please follow all written and verbal instructions given at the service.

✝ Worshipers must wear face masks when attending worship services. Worshipers may, at their discretion, remove their face mask once in their seats and at least six feet from the nearest group. Face masks must be worn when arriving, leaving, or otherwise moving about the church.

✝ If you need to visit the Church Office, you must wear a face mask. If you have a meeting or other business at the church, the only time you may remove your mask is if you are alone in a room. Masks should be removed if you are playing a sport or other athletic activity.

✝ If you do not own a face mask or forget to bring one, we will provide a mask for you.

✝ Services are held at regular times: 8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on Sunday and 6:00 p.m. on Monday.

✝ The 8:00 a.m. service will be livestreamed at www.facebook.com/trinitylutherancomo.

✝ Communion will be offered at worship services as scheduled. Communion will also be available at other advertised times and by appointment.

✝ There will be no in-person Sunday School or Fellowship Hour at this time. Children's Sunday School will be meeting via Zoom at 9:30 a.m. An adult Bible Study will be available at www.facebook.com/trinitylutherancomo.

✝ If you are in the high-risk group as defined by the City of Columbia (65 or older or have an underlying medical condition), you are encouraged not to attend services or events.

✝ If you have a cough, fever, shortness of breath, loss of taste or smell, or other COVID-19 symptoms, please do not attend.

✝ The most recent guidelines do not limit our occupancy to a specific number, but our socially-distant capacity is just over 100 people.

✝ Meetings and events may be held on site. Social distancing guidelines and all City of Columbia orders must be followed including rules for wearing face masks and for food preparation and service. As with worship services, high-risk and symptomatic individuals are encouraged not to attend events and meetings. Please contact the Church Office if your organization, group, board, etc. plans to resume meeting at Trinity.

Since this is an election year, this article will continue with the second half of the pamphlet from Lutherans For Life entitled “Is Abortion an Election Issue?”

4. Abortion isn't simply a personal issue. Abortion connects directly to the common good, especially to that of the least of these. It occurs at the juncture between the desires of the one and the requirements of another and the rest. It puts a thumb on the scales that balance corporate priorities with private ones; individual actions with civic impacts; and our limited, shared resources with our legitimate specific needs. As much as we might like to keep the reality of abortion behind closed doors, it infiltrates into our public consciousness, conversation, and collaborating. And given its significant stakes and manifold casualties, this is where it belongs.

5. Abortion isn't only a women's issue. Abortion puts an offspring to death—that makes abortion a children's issue. Every offspring descends from both a mother and a father—that makes abortion a man's issue. It also affects the employers and clients, neighbors and acquaintances of mother, father, and child. And it involves physicians and assistants, pharmacists and manufacturers, journalists and ethicists, students and researchers, officials and citizens in similar situations. In fact, abortion demands reckoning from us all, because these are our neighbors, and this is our nation.

6. Abortion isn't only a religious issue. Opposing abortion doesn't impose a doctrine. It acknowledges scientific data—that fertilization brings into being a distinct human life. Opposing abortion doesn't compel a certain faith. It accepts particular facts—that killing judicially innocent human lives makes civilization impossible and renders governments irrelevant. Outlawing abortion doesn't favor a church—it favors safety, freedom, and fairness for all. Outlawing abortion doesn't prefer one tradition over others—it defends every member of the human race.

7. Abortion isn't merely a Gospel issue. The Scriptures have much to say about the sanctity of human life. The Gospel of Jesus Christ declares and demonstrates that God creates, redeems, and calls each one as His own precious treasure forever. Christianity explores what this means for how we treat them. But even apart from this, the biological laws of nature lay on us the duty to look after our little ones. Prohibiting abortion is a fact of life and a function of humanity. It's a matter of right versus wrong and life versus death. And that's the proper realm of government and regulation.

8. Abortion isn't merely a Law issue. Pregnancy means we have responsibilities as a community. This holds true even when we have no hereditary relationship to mother or baby. God the Almighty Maker has made parents and child our neighbors. But it also gives us privileges. We get to speak a truth that changes hearts and shows a love that saves lives. Pregnancy's responsibilities come with wonderful opportunities. It invites us to receive every child (and his or her family!) as a gift from our Heavenly Father with whom we can share all the blessings He promises.

9. Abortion isn't one issue among others. In fact, abortion itself isn't the issue. Rather, what makes one human and what makes human life worthwhile are fundamental. All of our deliberations, discussions, and decisions about absolutely anything else follow from it. Though we can debate the best "how," we have neither room to negotiate nor right to compromise about "whether" we protect the threatened among us. The inalienable and heaven-given right to life is primary. Liberty and the pursuit of happiness remain greatly important, but secondary.

10. Abortion isn't somebody else's issue. It's your business, it's my business, and it's our business. It's our issue as Christians, it's our issue as citizens, and it's our issue as human beings. Abortion and the sanctity of every human life matter very much for elections—more so than anything else. And it matters for much more than elections. It's a whole life issue! In the near future, we will be hosting a movie night and will show the movie, "Unplanned." This movie tells the true story of Abby Johnson, a former Planned Parenthood worker. We will, of course, be following all City of Columbia guidelines for social distancing. Thanks again for all your support.

One Little Word

I recently wrote the last of LAC's project narratives—summaries of regional church-planting activities that contributors can support prayerfully and financially. My task? Capture the genesis, present snapshot, and goals of each undertaking in 175 words. With so few at my disposal, each had to be purposeful and impactful. Often during the editing process, one word added, changed, or deleted meant the difference between approval and back to the drawing board.

Three recent conversations about specific terms or phrases come to mind:

- 1) Is there a better word than "virtual" to describe online stand-ins for traditionally in-person activities?
- 2) Is "mission trip" an accurate descriptor of a weeklong service-learning experience?
- 3) Which nuance of the colloquial ahorita ("right now") is most commonly implied by the term in the DR?

Yes, words are enormously important and often hotly debated. They're loaded with meaning, explicit and implicit, denoted and connoted. But ponder Proverbs 16:24:

Gracious words are like a honeycomb, sweetness to the soul and health to the body.

Words can be restorative and life-giving! They can also be the opposite: destructive. In "A Mighty Fortress," Luther writes that "one little word can fell [this world's prince]," (LSB 656:3). Jesus, THE Word that has been since the beginning (John 1:1) routed Satan by his death and resurrection, simultaneously winning eternal life for all believers. Talk about impactful, and most certainly worth sharing...ahorita, virtually...

Praises and Petitions

2. Thanksgiving for COVID-19 food relief projects in no fewer than 10 LAC countries.
3. For the speedy resolution of documentation issues relating to the Ministry Centre in Kingston, Jamaica.
4. For those affected by the 7.4 earthquake near Oaxaca, Mexico, on 6/23.
5. For LAC's regional director, Rev. Ted Krey, as he begins doctoral studies through CTSFW.

The People Have Spoken...

...and Luis Abinader emerged as the DR's president-elect in the 7/5 elections. Abinader, a member of the liberal party—the PRM—will be sworn in on August 16. Current president Danilo Medina represented the conservative PLD for eight years and was ineligible for reelection.

The DR is a representative democracy whose federal government mirrors that of the US in many ways. The president and his appointed Cabinet chair the executive branch, a house (190 seats) and senate (32 seats) form a bicameral legislative branch, and the Suprema Corte de Justicia (17 judges) is the highest authority of the judicial branch.

One notable difference is that each new administration essentially cleans house when it comes to all governmental posts, even if the same party remains in power. Join me in lifting up the country throughout its upcoming transition, specifically all whose livelihoods are uncertain and those assuming positions of leadership at this volatile juncture in world history.
