A big thank you to those who attended our movie night on April 15th. We watched the movie "Unplanned" and Bonnie Lee of the Columbia 40 days for Life campaign spoke briefly afterward. If anyone wants to see the movie, please contact Phyllis White. Our annual LFL diaper drive will kick off on Mother's Day and run through Father's Day weekend. Blessings, the Life Team.

LECTIONARY LESSON
For May 2, 2021 - Fifth Sunday of Easter

Acts 8:26-40

1. Through what means did the Holy Spirit bring the Ethiopian eunuch to faith? (vv. 35, 38)
2. What is Philip's backstory? Read John 1:43-51; 6:5-7; 12:20-36; 14:6-10. This Philip is different than Philip the Evangelist, who is encountered later in Acts 6 and 21.

1 John 4:1-21

3. What does St. John mean here by "spirits?" Read 1 Timothy 4:1, 2. Can you think of spirits in the Scripture who are of God? (Think of messengers and the messages they bring; what do they usually say). What about spirits not from God? What is their goal? 1 Peter 5:8.
4. What do genuine spirits do, according to v. 6? To what standard pastors held to? Galatians 1:8, Matthew 15:9.
5. I've often thought v. 19 is one of those verses that perfectly sums up the entire Christian faith and is an answer for the hope that we have (1 Peter 3:15). In spreading the gospel, it's a verse that quickly answers the question "what's the meaning of life"? If the Bible did Twitter or Facebook, this might be the verse. The Reformers used this verse in the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, Article V to describe the Christian life: We love Him because He gave His Son for us and forgave us our sins. In this way John shows that faith comes first and love follows. How would you use this verse to teach the faith?

John 15:1-8

6. Why does Jesus make the distinction between the true and false vines? Read Isaiah 5:1-7 and Ezekiel 19:10-14.
7. In verse 3, Jesus says "already you are clean." Wait! If we're clean, why do we confess our sins every Sunday and daily in prayer? You may want to reference Luther's Small Catechism on Holy Baptism, question four. Why do believers need the continual attention vinedresser, according to v.5? What is the purpose of repeated pruning, for a gardener? For our spiritual lives, also in v. 5?
8. What happens when one is without faith, in v. 6 and also Matthew 3:10?
