Another Opportunity for Unplanned

Thank you to those of you who attended the showing of "Unplanned," the true story of Abby Johnson, the former Planned Parenthood clinic director, whose heart God changed through much prayer. Not only does the movie reveal the true motives of Planned Parenthood, but it also illustrates God's unlimited grace and forgiveness as well as the power of prayer. If you would like to view this movie in your home, you may borrow the copy from Sylvia Glenn (573-592-7866), a member of Trinity's Life Team.

LECTIONARY PREVIEW STUDY

Prepare for next week: July 4, 2021—Sixth Sunday After Pentecost

OT: Ezekiel 2:1-5

1. Collectively, chs. 1-3 for a unit in the Book of Ezekiel. Ch. 1 is a grand vision of God's glory given to Ezekiel and chs. 2-3, the task God giving to him. In ch. 4, Ezekiel begins his prophetic work.
2. In 2:2, some Bible translations have spirit and some others have "Spirit." There's something unique about the Hebrew verb used in the phrase entered into me and set me on my feet. This verb is causative—causing something to happen—meaning there's an outside agent acting on Ezekiel. If this agent is external, it's likely Spirit means the Holy Spirit, and not the prophet's own will power, or "inner powers."
3. When God speaks in v. 3, what is the main verb? Ezekiel is being _____ (starts with s) to the rebellious nation. See Isaiah 6:8 and Jeremiah 1:7, for a little help if needed. What is the New Testament name for one who is _____ (same answer as before) by God, having been given the Holy Spirit and a message to proclaim? An _____.
4. Having been given the Spirit of God, what is Ezekiel's task according to vv. 4 and 7?
5. How will the prophet's preaching be received, according to vv. 5, 7, 8? God elaborates on this in chapter 3:17-21. Take a moment to read these verses. If there is belief, where is credit due? If the Word is met with rejection, where is blame to be placed?

E: 2 Corinthians 12:1-10

6. In chapter 11, vv. 30ff, and 12:7-10, Paul shares that the weaknesses he and other pastors endure are purely for the sake of the gospel (Refer back to 1 Corinthians 4 and 2 Corinthians 6:3-13, esp. vv. 11-13).
7. The text does not give us a clear reason why God shared this particular vision with St. Paul, 14 years earlier. Now, St. Paul has good cause to share this vision for the sake of the Corinthian Christians, because in v. 12-13 the "super-apostles" were receiving visions and revelations to back up their spiritual authority. The Apostle knows boasting about his own such religious experiences won't help the believers. He does wish to show that such visions are for the sake of the Gospel alone, the promised glory awaiting believers. This is not for personal glory, but for the sake of the message of Christ crucified.

G: Mark 6:1-13

8. Jesus' fame has spread to his hometown. The reaction is a mixture of amazement and disbelief, and the residents of Nazareth are scandalized by Jesus (See Matt. 16:23 and 1 Peter 2:8). St. Luke 4:28-30 provides additional details. The reaction is not new: we heard a few weeks ago (June 6), that Jesus' family had a similar reaction (Mark 3:20-35). How might the reaction of rejection at Nazareth actually prepare the disciples' for their assignment in vv. 10, 11?
9. Why were the apostles given authority over unclean spirits? Head over to Mark 9:14-29, especially vv. 23-24, and once more to 2 Cor. 12:12. All signs, miracles, and teaching is for the sake of creating faith in Christ Jesus for the forgiveness of sins. When and where will Jesus' total authority over unclean spirits be revealed?

PICKLEBALL

Pickleball is going strong at Trinity! This summer, Pickleball will move to Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 5:00 p.m. All you need are comfortable shoes—the equipment is provided. Come play and join this fun activity!
