The Gift of Holy Absolution

Who of us is without sin? We are God's Baptized children, yet sin rails against us. I say, think, and do things that I should not. The things I should do as a Christian, I push aside. Even Paul struggled with this plight. "Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!" (Romans 7:24-25)

This battle is not a one-and-done for us. Daily we struggle against sin. Our desire is Christ, but our stumbling slams us face-first into our failings, shortcomings, and sin. Such a life leads to discord in our life with God and one another.

Into that discord comes a bright note, Christ has given us the gift of Holy Absolution to bring us from death to life. A daily dying and rising, if you will. "And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you withhold forgiveness from any, it is withheld'" (John 20:22-23).

The Lord does not leave us alone to struggle but sends us His servants. "God, having raised his servant, sent him to you first, to bless you by turning every one of you from your wickedness" (Acts 3:26). Showing us our sins, God bids us to confess those sins.

"But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us" (1 John 1:7-10).

In turning you by the law of God from sin, the servant of the Lord then proclaims forgiveness (that is, to send our sins away from us to Christ, who by His life redeems).

God alone forgives sins and gives the authority to his servants (John 20:22-23) to declare forgiveness to the hurting sinner. Thus, the small catechism asks, "What is the Office of the Keys?"

"The Office of the Keys is that special authority which Christ has given to His Church on earth to forgive the sins of repentant sinners, but to withhold forgiveness from the unrepentant as long as they do not repent."

Thus, by the authority and command of the Lord, a Pastor does the bidding of Christ to bring comfort and restoration to His people. During private confession and absolution, as well as during the Divine Services, the servant of the Lord and your servant delivers this great gift of forgiveness.

P Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Your Servant in Christ,

Rev. Brian K. Thieme

Knowing Christ's Love
Seeking His Will
Spreading His Word

2023 Higher Things Conference • Beyond Reasonable Doubt

WORSHIP

1,150 students and adults worshiped four times a day. The morning services were Morning Prayer or Matins. After lunch, the students prayed Vespers or Evening Prayer, offering a little taste of incense. At 11pm small groups throughout campus prayed Compline. We learned and loved what is available in our hymnal. Divine Service opened and closed the conference.

We were so excited to sing great hymns with 1,000 other youth along with organ, choir, and many instruments.

12 Trinity Youth and 6 adults traveled to sultry Carbondale IL to the campus of Southern Illinois University July 18-21 for a Higher Things youth conference. This was our congregation's first time attending. We had strong feelings about our Soviet-style dorms, but thankfully we were busy with worship, breakaway sessions, plenaries, eating, and enjoying the entertainment offerings, we barely even had time to sleep!

TEACHING • PLENARIES

We learned from Dr. Adam Francisco in our first two plenary sessions about the reliability of the Bible and how to address common objections about its veracity.

Pastor Harrison Goodman presented on Thursday and Friday on how doubt afflicts a believer and how Christ's cross is the answer to all doubt. He reminded us: "do not let your doubt be measured by the difficulty of the struggle, but by the sufficiency of Jesus' death."

TEACHING • BREAKAWAYS

Participants had 2-3 breakaways each day they could attend on specific topics. Several of our youth enjoyed "Faith and Reason: A Scientist's Perspective" by Dr. Bryan Stearns. Pastor McCalley taught a session as well "Only Believers Have Doubts." Other topics included, "A Healthy Dose of Lament" about the psalms of lament and "Cantorology 101" explaining the what, why and how of church music.

ENTERTAINMENT

Each evening after dinner but before Compline, youth had a whole host of activities to choose from: axe throwing, paint along, use of the university's rec center with bumper balls, volleyball, basketball, sidewalk chalk.

We had an amazing time and we thank everyone in the congregation for their support and encouragement for us to be able to attend!

BIG NIANGUA FLOAT TRIP Saturday, September 2, 2023

Come relax on the Big Niangua for a day! We'll kayak and canoe

WHAT: Come relax on the Big Niangua for a day! We'll kayak and canoe with other area Lutheran churches. The outfitter is Living Waters Canoe Ministries and is being organized with Christ the King Lutheran Church. We'll leave Trinity early morning and return late afternoon. Lunch will be provided on the river.

COST: $20 per person.

DEADLINE: AUGUST 12 (this is a hard deadline)

RSVP to Pastor McCalley

Vesper Guild

All Trinity ladies are invited to the first meeting of the season of LWML Vesper Guild, Tuesday, August 15 at 5:30 p.m.. Meeting will be held in the church library.

We start with a business discussion followed by a Bible study. Snacks are served. Meetings are held the 3rd Tuesday of each month August through May.

For information or questions, contact Betty Buchheit at 573-823-2664

LWML MITES

The societies of Mary Martha Guild and Vesper Guild have a labeled box for LWML Mites and will be on display first and third Sundays. Please bring your loose coins and drop them in the designated box! These donations support many national mission projects chosen at the recent LWML Missouri convention. The box will be placed in the narthex.

Thank you for your interest and support of LWML.

Confirmation —Class—

Junior Confirmation Classes

Parents of new and returning JCC students should have received letters about this year's confirmation classes. Classes will meet on Sundays at 6:00 p.m.

If you have any questions, please contact the church office at (573) 445-2112 or church@trinity-lcms.org or talk with one of the pastors.

Ladies' Bible Study & Story Telling

Through story telling the Holy Spirit inspired Moses to write the first books of the Bible. Jesus used parables to teach us how to live and understand our lives as His followers. In this Bible study we will get to know some of the women of the Bible, their stories and experiences. We will explore how we can share their story with others. Whether it be encouragement, endurance, grief, or love their stories are a gift; a gift that is meant to be shared.

Join the fellowship on Thursday evenings at 6:30 pm in the classroom in the fellowship hall. Questions? Contact Chris Bailey at 573-639-0727 or email at vanity411@yahoo.com

Men's Thursday Bible Study

The Thursday morning Men's Bible Study began new study in May. This new study will use the new Concordia: The Lutheran Confessions – A Reader's Edition of The Book of Concord (second edition). Specifically, we will start with Luther's Large Catechism. If you have an individual copy of Concordia, bring it along but there should be enough copies for each attendee (church copies). We will use the same format as with The Lutheran Study Bible; i.e., we will read each section together and discuss the doctrine using the Concordia notes.

Please plan on joining us and remember, we start at 7:00 am each Thursday.

The handbell choir will resume practices this month. Practice will be held on August 13, 20, and 27 at 5 pm.

Please contact Kimberly Walker if you have questions or are interested in joining the handbell choir: (708) 532-3358 or kimberly.walker@outlook.com.

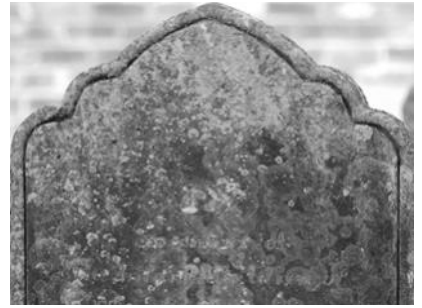

Death and Dying Bible Study

Place: Fellowship Hall

Start Date: Wednesday, August 23, 2023

Time: 1:30pm-2:15pm

Contact: Church Office

Were you interested in attending the Death and Dying Study offered at the 6:30am Men's Study but would rather learn during hours for the living? Pastor McCalley will offer this study again in August. This study is designed to encourage you to Christian confidence to contend with death in this life, help prepare for death, equip to share and teach others about these issues, and answer as many questions as you have about anything and everything related to it; all this so we may fear the grave as little as our bed for Jesus' sake. We'll begin with the Scripture, discuss the rites and worship services used when death is near and for funerals, move on to planning, and finally explore many questions and issues such as organ donation, near death experiences, and hospice. Please let Heather in the Church Office know if you plan to attend so materials may be prepared. [It is not necessary to read this announcement with a Vincent Price accent].

Grief Resource Available

Stephen Ministry has a resource available to you. Journeying through Grief book sets can help you extend care and minister to people you know who are grieving the loss of a loved one. The four short books are intended to be given at 3 weeks, 3 months, 6 months, and 11 months during the first year after a loss. A tracking card is included to record when each book is due to be given and the date they were given. Each 44-page book focuses on the feelings and issues a person is likely to experience at that point in his or her grief, offering comfort, help, and hope throughout that difficult first year.

Although the books are written from a Christian perspective, they address spiritual matters sensitively, with a focus on ideas and principles that would apply for any reader, whatever his or her beliefs.

The Life Team has several items to share with you. First, we recommend the movie, Sound of Freedom. It is a true story of the horrific reality of human trafficking which happens all over the world, including the United States. This is a powerful and emotional movie and definitely not recommended for families to watch together. However, it is the slavery of our times and we urge you to see it, if possible, to become informed about this issue and see how you can help.

Next, Save the Date! Life Network of Central Missouri is holding their annual banquet on Friday, September 15th at the Crossing Church. The speaker this year is Kelly Lester who shares her story about desperate situations and that they are not beyond God. She shares her story of God making beauty from the ashes of her life. The Trinity Life Team is sponsoring a table this year and 4 seats are available. If you are interested in attending, please contact Sylvia Glenn or Phyllis White.

And one more item: the Life Team, in an effort to educate and equip our congregation to be Gospel motivated voices for life, is working to bring a speaker from Missouri Right to Life to talk about the proposed initiative petitions for the election in 2024 and how, if passed, they would affect the protections for women and unborn children in our state. Be on the lookout for the announcement in the weeks to come!

Blessings the Life Team

Greetings in the name of Jesus who cares for the caregivers,

God calls us to care for those in need, especially disabled persons, those with an incurable disease or the elderly. He also promises to help those involved in care giving. Much of that help comes from fellow believers who come along side the caregiver. Hospice care is one avenue for that help. Last month we considered questions to ask before choosing a hospice. This month we will consider other aspects of care giving as presented by Pastor Scott Licht, CFO/COO of Lutherans For Life, when he spoke about some end of life considerations at the Annual meeting of Lutherans For Life of MO.

Care giving can bring many conflicting emotions. Here are some, to name a few: stress; satisfaction; frustration; love; anxiety; commitment; overwhelmed; inadequate; joy; grief; helpless; resentful; tired; angry; happy; opportunity; hopeful; fulfilled; obligated; honored. As you can see the emotions are varied and run from one extreme to another. All these emotions can bring about "caregiver stress".

Signs of caregiver stress include

- Feeling overwhelmed or constantly worried
- Sleeping too much or too little
- Significant weight gain or loss
- Becoming easily irritated or angry
- Losing interest in activities that were enjoyable
- Frequent headaches, bodily pains, or other physical problems
- Abusing alcohol or drugs, including prescription medicines

There are ways caregivers can relieve their own stress and ways that others can help them. The caregiver can

- PRAY!!!
- Ask for/Accept help
- Focus on what one CAN do
- Get connected with community services such as transportation, meals or disease-specific education
- Be vigilant about one's physical, spiritual, and mental health.

Others can be God's hands in helping the caregiver. This is where the church steps in by PRAYING!! One might also offer to provide respite care so the caregiver may go to work, get her hair done, get a massage, meet with friends, shop for Christmas presents, attend choir practice, etc. Another might organize volunteers to provide respite care so that caregivers can get together as a group for mutual support and encouragement. It is also important not to forget the person being cared for by giving them opportunities to keep up with friends, etc.

Is there a caregiver that you can help today? Look around and be God's hands and feet.

Caring for all human life from beginning to end,

Sylvia Glenn

Feel free to call (573-592-7866) for information or concerns about life issues. For those who have had an abortion, there is a word of hope! "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds" (Psalm 147:3). Regarding the 30th Anniversary of Ordination of Pastor Thieme, all member households have been mailed a formal invitation. Additional invitations are available from the church office. If you are a member but did not receive an invitation or if you are a nonmember or former member, contact Heather in the church office to receive an invitation. Please complete and return the RSVP card before August 8.

The special service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, September 10 and the dinner and program will be held in our gymnasium shortly after the service. There is no cost for you to attend the dinner. Assistance with the event will be needed during the weekend of September 10. Let us know if you can help by contacting Heather in the church office: 573-445-2112.

Our congregation is sending Pastor Thieme and Sarah on an overseas 12-day trip of a lifetime in appreciation of their 30 years of faithful service. The details of the trip will be revealed during the program on September 10. Thank you for your generous contributions to date. Anyone who would still like to contribute, please make your check payable to Trinity Lutheran Church with a notation it is for PT's 30th Anniversary.

The program is being planned by Larry McCoig, our congregation president. His contact information: lmomc@yahoo.com or 660-247-3026. We hope you and your family can join your brothers and sisters in Christ as we share in the blessing of having Pastor Thieme as God's faithful servant for 30 years.

LIFE NETWORK WELCOMES... Kelly Lester

Kelly's story is one that covers so many difficult and painful topics in our world today. Rape, abortion, drugs, prostitution, homosexuality and working in an abortion clinic.

But beauty triumphs from the ashes, and Kelly is a testament to how God can clean all the dirty parts of a painful life story and make it brand new.

Now a wife and mother of six children, Kelly loves to share her story to give hope to the most desperate situations, proving that God can save anybody. She is currently a client advocate for LoveLine Ministries, works in Outreach and Government Engagement for And Then There Were None and Pro-Love Ministries, and a board member for Village Ansanm: Living Stones Ministries.

Confession and Absolution

What is Confession? Confession has two parts. First, that we confess our sins, and second, that we receive absolution, that is, forgiveness, from the pastor as from God Himself, not doubting, but firmly believing that by it our sins are forgiven before God in heaven.

What sins should we confess? Before God we should plead guilty of all sins, even those we are not aware of, as we do in the Lord's Prayer; but before the pastor we should confess only those sins which we know and feel in our hearts.

Which are these? Consider your place in life according to the Ten Commandments: Are you a father, mother, son, daughter, husband, wife, or worker? Have you been disobedient, unfaithful, or lazy? Have you been hot-tempered, rude, or quarrelsome? Have you hurt someone by your words or deeds? Have you stolen, been negligent, wasted anything, or done any harm?
