The Mary Martha Guild would like to thank you for your support of our fall fundraiser. The nut sales were a success, and we were able to meet our goal. The nuts were delivered to us from Farmstead Nuts and Treats in Olathe, KS. The proceeds from sales will be used for financial donations to missions selected by Guild members. Thank you all for your orders and many thanks to those who served on the fundraising committee to complete this project successfully. Thanks again!

Men's Thursday Bible Study

The Thursday morning Men's Bible Study uses Concordia: The Lutheran Confessions – A Reader's Edition of The Book of Concord (second edition), starting with Luther's Large Catechism. If you have an individual copy of Concordia, bring it along but there should be enough copies for each attendee (church copies). We will use the same format as with The Lutheran Study Bible; i.e., we will read each section together and discuss the doctrine using the Concordia notes.

Please plan on joining us and remember, we start at 7:00 am each Thursday.

COOKIE DECORATING & CHRISTMAS PARTY
Sunday, December 17th

TIME: 3:00-5:00pm

PLACE: Youth Room

Christmas blessings in the name of the Christ child, born for us, to die and rise for us,

As we celebrate the birth of our LORD Jesus Christ, we must realize that His birth points us to His death and resurrection in a few short months, but it's His sacrifice that gives value to every human being for whom He died. The following devotion is from the booklet, Christ the Life of All the Living, published by Lutherans For Life.

The Sanctity of Life (John 3:4-8, 16-17)
by Rev. A. Daniel Guagenti

"In his great work On the Trinity, Augustine of Hippo wrote of Jesus, "He is believed to have been conceived on the 25th of March, upon which day also He suffered; so the womb of the Virgin, in which He was conceived, where no one of mortals was begotten, corresponds to the new grave in which He was buried, wherein was never man laid, neither before Him nor since."

"Only occasionally does March 25 mark both the Feast of the Annunciation and Good Friday, the day the ancients believed Jesus' life both began and ended. Regardless, scholars question the historical accuracy of this tradition; after all, the Bible does not specify which date Jesus was born or died. What the Bible specifies clearly is the purpose of Jesus' incarnation and death. Jesus came to this world to die for this world. He came to live a life fulfilling the Law so He could offer His life for all who have broken the Law. Augustine's dates may be off, but his point is spot on. The Jesus who hallowed the virgin's womb also hallowed the virgin tomb. This Jesus sanctifies all lives and provides the way out of death.

"So we Christians approach life, our neighbors' lives, and death differently from the world when our faith and love are perfected by knowledge of Christ (Philippians 1:9). Christ Jesus is the life of all the living. He the life of the blessed dead who live in Him." (The Sanctity of Life, by Rev. A. Daniel Guagenti; Christ the Life of All the Living; devotion booklet conceived and developed by Rev. Michael Salemin, Executive Director, Lutherans For Life.

Christ's living and dying not only gives value to every human life, but His sojourn in Mary's womb especially gives value to every unborn child. Nine months in advance of our Lord's birth, He first entered our world as a human being. And already ahead of our seeing, meeting Him and celebrating Him at Christmas, He was sanctifying every member of our race with His embryonic body. "Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, He himself likewise partook of the same things" (Hebrews 2:14). Thanks to the innovations of science and technology, we can actually trace and date our Savior's gestation alongside us and on our behalf.

Celebrate Jesus, Christ the Life of All the Living, and the value He gives to every human life, especially the unborn, this Christmas time and always!

In Him,

Sylvia Glenn
