Dear members and friends,

Thank you to everyone who helped make Rally Day exciting and fun. Unfortunately it rained, but it did not put a damper on the day. We had a good time indoors. We are hoping to begin a Sunday School for all ages - even if its just once a month. If you received a questionnaire in the mail, please make sure to return it. Thank you.

Our vacation trip to Alaska did not go well. There were fires in the forests. The smoke made its way into the cities. So city and wilderness were smoke filled. In addition there was flooding in the Kenai Peninsula. "We went north but, Our plans went south." We came home 2 days early.

But that's how it goes sometimes. And a failed vacation is the least of our troubles. There is so much more that challenges us today - It seems petty to complain about a vacation. Better luck next year ☺

We wish farmers and farm workers a safe and abundant harvest season.

We wish teachers and all school officials and students a safe and enriching school year . We pray for our families, our community, and our country. We pray for peace and safety for everyone. And we pray that each and every one of us will grow in the knowledge of God and closer to Jesus.

Blessings to all,

Pastor Carol
