This week's spotlight...

Family Assistance Fund

The Family Assistance Fund is a “silent” mission. For Christ-like reasons it is confidential. This fund sees tremendous use and has been a blessing to so many people.

The fund provides aid to individuals, couples, and families that need a helping hand, often due to life circumstances. Providing relief to those who are burdened with medical bills, unemployment, housing issues, lacking adequate transportation, disaster relief, or disability. It is not only for those who are destitute. It is for those who were once independent, but now caught in a season of crisis. This aid enables them to move forward to regain normalcy in their life.

The fund supports individuals in areas of ministry that LCVH cannot provide on its own. Services such as professional Christian Counseling or special needs resources for our Children’s Ministry.

Family Assistance also works at times with our Social Ministry Board in various community projects.

If you know of someone who might benefit from this fund, please reach out to Pastor.
