WHAT ATTRACTS PEOPLE TO CHURCH?

Why do people select a particular church? A convenient location? Yes. A good speaker in the pulpit? Yes. Inspiring music? Yes. An attractive building? Yes.

But a more essential element in attracting visitors, newcomers and prospective members is friendliness — both in the pew and throughout the community. Where there is a warm, dynamic congregation with an enthusiasm that's contagious, visitors will usually be found, and will return.

A church can buy many advantages with money, such as nice buildings, trained leadership, effective advertising and an abundance of supplies for spiritual and social use. But old-fashioned friendliness, of which the world is sorely in need, can't be purchased with money. It comes only from the hearts of dedicated people who love God and enjoy helping others feel at home in their church.

Stewardship

LCMS Stewardship Ministry

Newsletter Article – August 2019

Have you ever noticed the subtle ceremony of receiving the offerings during the Divine Service? The offerings are collected in plates or baskets, and they are brought forward and given to the pastor or an assistant. The pastor turns toward the altar, and, as he slightly bows his head, the offerings are raised slightly to the Lord and placed on the altar or an adjacent table.

Why do we have this ceremony? And what does it teach us? For that is what ceremony does – it teaches, as the Augsburg Confession tells us what we need to know about Christ (AC XXIV, 1–3).

Originally, this ceremony included more than simply bringing forward what was collected in the offering plates. The elements for the Holy Communion – the bread and the wine – were brought forward with the offerings. The offerings and elements were lifted toward the Lord and placed upon the altar. The altar, now made a table, would be set for the Lord's Supper.

Gifts brought to the altar come from the sweat of His people's brow. They are the bread and wine, the fruits of His people's labor in this fallen world. After six days of labor and toil, the people are to bring a generous proportion for the Lord's work. Gifts set upon the altar are offered to the Lord for Him to take up and press into service for His gracious work.

For what is offered to the Lord from the sweat of His people's brow – the bread of anxious toil – comes back to us as the bread of life. The bread comes down from heaven that whoever eats this bread and drinks this cup will receive life through the forgiveness of their sins.

This is not unlike what the Lord did for His people in the Old Testament:

“You shall tithe all the yield of your seed that comes from the field year by year. And before the Lord your God, in the place that he will choose, to make his name dwell there, you shall eat the tithe of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and flock, that you may learn to fear the Lord your God always. And if the way is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry the tithe, when the Lord your God blesses you, because the place is too far from you, which the Lord your God chooses, to set his name there, then you shall turn it into money and bind up the money in your hand and go to the place that the Lord your God chooses and spend the money for whatever you desire – oxen or sheep or wine or strong drink, whatever your appetite craves. And you shall eat there before the Lord your God and rejoice, you and your household.” (Deut. 14:22-26)

What a blessing! God provides for us in all things. He provides bread from the sweat of our brows. He receives this from us in the first-fruits offerings we give to Him in thanksgiving and praise, and He turns these into spiritual bread. He gives this heavenly bread – the bread of eternal life – back to us so we might have joy.

Stewardship (continued)

So, the next time you are in the Divine Service, watch this ceremony in wonder. The offerings we have given to Him, the Lord gives back to us in His supper so that we may rejoice in the salvation He won for us upon the cross.

How would you feel...

- † If God gave us the same amount of time and attention that we devote to Him?
- † If God put as many things ahead of us as we put ahead of Him?
- † If God offered as many excuses as we do and if the excuses were not more justifiable than ours?
- † If God's promises were no more certain than ours?
- † If God withheld His blessings from us as we withhold our offerings to Him?

Some genuine thoughts to ponder!

I would like to thank those that sent me cards, called to check on me and came to visit me. I would especially like to thank Pastor Matt for coming and visiting with me while I was in the hospital.

In Praise to the Lord!

Lutheran Women's Missionary League
38th Biennial Convention
June 20-23, 2019

Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up ( Galatians 6:9). Let us continue to Praise the Lord for all the miraculous things He's done in our lives! It is in Praise to our Lord that I would love to continue sharing with everyone what He has done through our Lutheran Women's Missionary League! How He provides the physical gifts to gather for His Mission work, and how He filled us with His Spirit at the convention to continue His work where ever we go!

The logo and the convention theme was based on the Scripture verses, Sing to the Lord, all the earth! Tell of his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the nations (1 Chronicles 16:23–24a). To declare His glory among the nations is the heart of who we are as Lutheran Women in Mission. Guided by the Holy Spirit and God's marvelous works, we were equipped at Mobile, Alabama to tell of His salvation from day to day. The cross and the heart mark the work of Christ Jesus to all the earth and lead us in praise to the Lord.

Jaclyn Rychel a mites in action speaker, shared what was accomplished with the money LWML gave to them, creating a clean practical useful home for elderly, "the forgotten generation" who were starving and lacked any care in Haiti. "Some picked up from the streets to weak to stand" with no family and no one to take care of them (criteria to enter the home) . So they put them in the back of a pick up truck with an

They were bathed and washed, hair braided, and then out in a bed with clean linen. One of the first ladies said "this was the best night sleep I've ever had" after her first night. It included a nursing classroom to train nurses to care for elderly (geriatric care) as well.

Thank you LWML for providing the resources to help these people!

Dr. Brent Smith a keynote speaker from Nebraska showed pictures of the floods in Nebraska, Kansas and Iowa, including the family farm where he grew up, where everything was taken by the God sent floods. He boldly proclaimed: "No tornadoes, floods or hurricanes, even earth quakes..., can take your praise away from the Lord!" (See Isaiah 62). If God is for us, who can be against us? Nothing can separate us from the love of God! "The ability to go forth in joy, was brought to you as a gift from God!

To Forgive!

To be a Christian means to forgive the inexcusable, because God has forgiven the inexcusable in you. This is hard. It is perhaps not so hard to forgive a single injury. But to forgive the incessant provocations of daily life - to keep on forgiving the bossy mother-in-law, the bullying husband, the nagging wife, the selfish daughter, the deceitful son - how can we do it? Only, I think, by remembering where we stand, by meaning our words when we say in our prayers each night, "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." We are offered forgiveness on no other terms. To refuse it means to refuse God's mercy for ourselves. There is no hint of exceptions and God means what He says._ C.S. Lewis

Library News

We are so excited about all the donations God has been blessing our library with! We recently were given a wealth of great reading material, mostly non-fiction books, which are grouped on the first round table in the library. “Dear Zoe” by Max De Pree is a compilation of letters a grandfather wrote to his granddaughter after her very premature birth. I recommend it, as I read it myself before processing it! Thanks for the new additions.

If anyone follows features in the free “Albert Lea Magazine” publication, one of the recommended reads is Lisa Wingates’ “Before We Were Yours”. We have that hard-cover book here in our library. Ask Jean or Ann if you wish to read this but can’t find it. In the early fall, expect to find the fourth novel of Lauraine Snelling’s “Under the Northern Sky” series. It is to be shipped in August.

When a loved one has died and you can’t think of where you wish a memorial to be given to, remember our library. A couple of Zion’s recently deceased members either donated to or consistently checked out many books. After giving a memorial designated to Zion Library Fund, notify Ann Estes or Jean Wilmert.

Summer will soon be over and the cool weather will be here. There is no better way to settle in, than with a good book and a hot cup of cocoa/tea/coffee!

Blessed reading,

Library Committee

Needed: J.A.M. and Sunday School Teachers

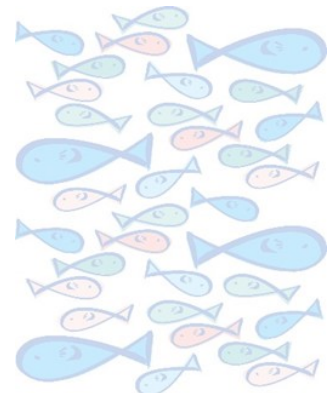

Sunday School and J.A.M. teachers are a hot commodity at Zion. We are praying that the Lord will provide faithful and enthusiastic Sunday School and J.A.M. teachers for Zion's cheerful students. In two months, we will be back in the classroom. We pray that God would raise-up teachers who are willing and excited about sharing their faith in Jesus with our little ones. Speak with Jennifer Overland, chair of the Board of Education or Pastor Matt. Please, prayerfully consider assisting in this mighty manner of spiritual formation of Zion's children and youth.

A Fishy Excuse

Two men were in a boat fishing on a Sunday morning. "I suppose we should have gone to church this morning," said one man. "Don't you feel a wee bit guilty about it?"

"Nope," said the other, "besides, I couldn't have gone anyway. My wife's sick in bed today."

A Church Garden

First, plant five rows of peas:

1. Presence
2. Promptness
3. Preparation
4. Purity
5. Perseverance.

Next to these, plant three rows of squash:

1. Squash gossip.
2. Squash criticism.
3. Squash indifference.

No garden is complete without turnips:

1. Turn-up for meetings.
2. Turn-up with a smile.
3. Turn-up with new ideas.
4. Turn-up with determination to make everything count for something good and worthwhile.

The Promise of Good Things

A woman in a nursing home was sitting in a rocking chair listening to a preacher on television. During his sermon, the preacher's face filled the screen. Suddenly, he shouted, "Something good is going to happen to you!"

A nurse standing near the old woman heard her say, "Well, let it happen, Sonny!"

God promises good things to us all: "I will send down the showers in their season; they shall be showers of blessing" (Ezekiel 34:26, NRSV).

An 8-year-old girl who lived two doors away from a retired pastor asked him, "Why do you drink coffee?" The surprised pastor answered with a smile, "Because I like the taste of it and it gets me going in the morning."

That pastor might have been interested in this bit of trivia: In 1592, Pope Clement VIII declared coffee to be a legitimate drink for Christians. Before that edict, it had been labeled "the wine of infidels" because of its popularity among non-Christians.

How have the times changed . . . that cup of Joe is mighty good!
