- As more activities are occurring at church, please make every effort to inform our custodian Kevin about setup needs. It is helpful to be as specific as possible, i.e. how many tables, which direction they should be set and so on, drawings and sketches are very helpful. You may communicate directly with Kevin during his usual work hours between noon and 2 PM most weekdays or if more convenient, your information can be given to Scott and he will pass the word on to Kevin. Also note that all activities should be written on the master calendar in the church office.
