Announcements

This morning, we welcome Vicar Joseph Moore, wife, Maggie , and daughter, Evangeline to Zion! We are excited to have them here with us for the next year. Vicar Moore is in his third year of training to become an ordained minister in the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod and will be working at Zion under Pastor Grimmer for a year before returning to Concordia Theological Seminary at Ft. Wayne, Indiana, to complete his final year of seminary education.

Announcements

Welcome Vicar Joseph Moore & Family! Join us for a Hamburger BBQ to welcome Vicar Joseph Moore and his family TODAY (noon) at the Ministry Center.

We're looking for friendly faces to join our usher team! Ushers play a vital role in making everyone feel welcome and ensuring our services run smoothly. If you're willing to help, please contact Larry Titze. Your service makes a difference!

Zion Family Pool Night! Join us for Zion Family Pool Night on Sunday, August 10th, from 6 PM to 8 PM at the Mitchell Outdoor Aquatic Center! We want everyone to be able to participate, so if you don't have a pool pass, don't worry! Just sign up at the door, and K+F+C will happily cover your admission fees. Just a friendly reminder: this is a supervised family event, so please ensure an adult is present with your group throughout the evening. We're looking forward to a wonderful night with you all!

Join Us for Zion's Annual Golf Outing! Get ready for some fun on the green! Zion's annual Golf Outing is set for Sunday, August 10, at 1:00 PM at Lakeview Municipal Golf Course.
How to Sign Up:
• Register easily online at www.zionmitchell.org/event.
• Prefer paper? Grab a registration form in the narthex.

We extend our sincere thanks to all who contributed to preparing the vicarage for the Moore family. Your efforts in donating items, cleaning, organizing, renovating and moving everything into the house are deeply appreciated.

A special thank you to Doug Schley and Gary Worth for their excellent work installing the coffee bar and utility closets at the Ministry Center.

We'd like to extend our deepest gratitude to all the volunteers who so generously helped host the funeral for our neighboring congregation. Your kindness in setting up, serving, cleaning, and providing a welcoming space during such a difficult time was truly a blessing. Thank you for your selfless efforts.

Psalm 34:11, 5

Come, O children, lis- | ten to me;*

I will teach you the fear | of the LORD.

Those who look to him are | radiant,*
and their faces shall never | be ashamed.

Epistle

Romans 6:19–23

¹⁹I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification.

²⁰When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. ²¹But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. ²²But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. ²³For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Holy Gospel

Mark 8:1–9

¹In those days, when again a great crowd had gathered, and they had nothing to eat, [Jesus] called his disciples to him and said to them, ²“I have compassion on the crowd, because they have been with me now three days and have nothing to eat. ³And if I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way. And some of them have come from far away.” ⁴And his disciples answered him, “How can one feed these people with bread here in this desolate place?” ⁵And he asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” They said, “Seven.” ⁶And he directed the crowd to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and they set them before the crowd. ⁷And they had a few small fish. And having blessed them, he said that these also should be set before them. ⁸And they ate and were satisfied. And they took up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full. ⁹And there were about four thousand people. And he sent them away.

Introit

Psalm 47:3, 6–8; antiphon: vv. 1–2

Clap your hands, all | peoples!*

Shout to God with loud | songs of joy!

For the LORD, the Most High, is | to be feared,*
a great king over | all the earth.

He subdued peoples | under us,*
and nations un- | der our feet.

Sing praises to God, sing | praises!*

Sing praises to our King, sing | praises!

For God is the King of | all the earth;*
sing praises | with a psalm!

God reigns over the | nations;*

God sits on his | holy throne.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Clap your hands, all | peoples!*

Shout to God with loud | songs of joy!

For the LORD, the Most High, is | to be feared,*
a great king over | all the earth.

Old Testament Reading

Genesis 2:7–17

⁷Then the LORD God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature. ⁸And the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed. ⁹And out of the ground the LORD God made to spring up every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The tree of life was in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

¹⁰A river flowed out of Eden to water the garden, and there it divided and became four rivers. ¹¹The name of the first is the Pishon. It is the one that flowed around the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. ¹²And the gold of that land is good; bdellium and onyx stone are there. ¹³The name of the second river is the Gihon. It is the one that flowed around the whole land of Cush. ¹⁴And the name of the third river is the Tigris, which flows east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

¹⁵The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it. ¹⁶And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, "You may surely eat of every tree of the garden, ¹⁷but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die."
