Theme for this family study:
The first table of the Law

We've finished our look at the first table of God's Law. The first three commandments remind us of our relationship with God. It is a vertical relationship between God and man compared to the horizontal relationship of the second table, commandments four through ten. (Parents ask your youth to explain this further)

Complete the following questions and bring this back to class. (Hint: The gift of the Fifth Commandment is life)

1. What is the gift of the First Commandment?
2. What is the gift of the Second Commandment?
3. What is the gift of the Third Commandment?

Each time you have family devotions review the following information. Quiz next week on Church Year.
